IN MEMORIAM

The Red Sox lost three of their long-time dedicated employees during 2001. Helen Robinson, Eddie Popowski and Joe Stephenson served the Red Sox organization in exemplary fashion for a combined 177 years. Former Red Sox General Manager and Hall of Fame second baseman Eddie Collins hired Helen September 2, 1941 as the team's switchboard operator and receptionist, the only non-uniformed person he hired for the club. Collins, who also discovered and signed Red Sox greats and Hall of Famers Bobby Doerr and Ted Williams, made quite a selection in his only non-uniformed hiring! For 60 years and one month, Ms. Robinson answered incoming telephone calls with her trademark, "Red Sox!" She became a close confidant and great friend to many Red Sox executives such as Tom and Jean Yawkey, Haywood Sullivan and John Harrington, as well as numerous uniformed team personnel. One of her all-time favorites was Ted Williams, with whom she had a warm and lasting friendship. From her days using the old plug-in type phone switchboard to more modern equipment, Helen treated her position as a key communicator for the organization with great professionalism. She seldom missed a day's work. On Monday October 1, 2001 she closed the telephone system at 5 p.m. for the last time. The next morning Helen became ill and passed away unexpectedly...

Helen Robinson

Pop, who died December 4, 2001, had a remarkable pro baseball career with the Red Sox as a player, coach and minor league manager that began in 1937. Before his Red Sox days he played for the House of David touring team and was the only non-bearded member of that legendary club. He spent 21 years as a minor league manager and then came to the major leagues for the first time as the Red Sox third base coach for the Impossible Dream pennant season of 1967. The last 25 years Eddie worked as a minor league instructor including 14 years as coordinator of extended spring training. In March of 1997 the main field at the team's minor league complex in Fort Myers, FL was renamed "Eddie Popowski Field." The organization honored Pop, and his family, on his 85th birthday in 1998 at Fenway Park. He was inducted into the Salem-Roanoke Baseball Hall of Fame on February 14, 1999 for his years of managing and coaching in Roanoke in the 1940's. A great baseball story-teller, Pop was also famous for his windmill, backhanded flip when returning a foul ball from the coaches' box to the pitcher. The Fenway Park crowd would roar when he would demonstrate this amazing feat...Good scouts are the backbone of any successful major league team and the Red Sox had one of the greatest in Joe Stephenson who scouted California for talent from 1949 through 2001. The long list of California talent he sent to the Red Sox includes Earl Wilson, Jim Pagliaroni, Mike Andrews, Ken Brett, Don Aase, Dwight Evans, Fred Lynn, Bill Lee, Rick Burleson, Glenn Hoffman, Jeff Suppan and Ryan McGuire. In 1987 Joe received the Scout of the Year Award, for the western U.S. area, in recognition of his excellence in scouting, years of service and professionalism in the performance of his job. Stephenson was a catcher who worked his way up to the New York Giants in 1943, played for the Chicago Cubs in 1944 and with the Chicago White Sox in 1947. His final season was 1948 when he played with Memphis and Birmingham (a Red Sox farm team) in the Southern Association. After a broken leg, suffered in a collision at home plate, ended his playing career, the Red Sox signed Joe as a scout in 1949 and the 53-year relationship continued until he passed away September 22, 2001.

HALL OF FAME ROAD TRIP

The Hall of Fame begins its first-ever national tour, when Baseball As America opens at the American Museum of Natural History (NY) on March 16. The exhibit will run through August 18 and then travel to the Natural History Museum of Los Angeles County from September 21, 2002 through January 5, 2003.

An estimated four to five million people will see the exhibit, which will travel to eight more nationally renowned museums over the next three years, including: Field Museum of Natural History in Chicago, the Cincinnati Museum Center; Florida International Museum in St. Petersburg, FL; National Museum of Natural History, Smithsonian Institution in Washington, DC; and the Missouri Historical Society in St. Louis. Three more cities will be named later this year. Visit the tour Web site, baseballasamerica.org, for complete details.

Just like the Hall of Fame experience in Cooperstown, Baseball As America is a national celebration of America's romance with baseball. It represents the richness of baseball as the American pastime and celebrates enduring American values – freedom, patriotism, opportunity and ingenuity. The exhibition provides a revealing, inspiring, humorous and dramatic perspective on America's Game and so doing, fosters a new appreciation for baseball, but of our national character.

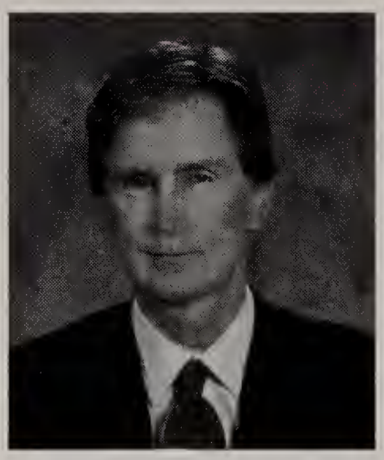
JOHN W. HENRY

Principal Owner



John Henry is an avid baseball fan. He often refers to baseball as an "affair of the heart." "Our ownership group believes the people of New England have always and will always be the true owners of the Boston Red Sox." Espousing the principles of the late, great Edward Bennett Williams, Henry views his role as a steward of New England's beloved baseball team, charged with the responsibility on and off the field to represent the Red Sox fans of all ages in helping to guide their team to a World Series championship early in the century and at the same time enhancing the relationship between the community and the team.

Along with Tom Werner, Larry Lucchino and local partners who love the Red Sox, he intends to help focus the franchise on what it can achieve through active participation in the community. "The Boston Red Sox Foundation will play a key role in many areas of New England. The owners, staff and players of the Red Sox will work together to bring enlightened leadership and teamwork in relation to community efforts.

On December 20, 2001, the partners of the Boston Red Sox voted unanimously to sell 100% of the team's interests to an investment group led by Mr. Henry and Mr. Werner. The Major League Baseball clubs approved the ownership transfer of the Boston Red Sox from the Yawkey Trust and limited partners to Henry's group on January 16, 2002. The sale closed February 27, 2002.

With his passion and enthusiasm for baseball, John is often seen moving throughout ballparks in spring training and during the regular season interacting with fans. There is often laughter and he usually asks more questions of fans than they ask of him.

"I love to listen to and interact with fans. Perhaps not every fan can identify with me, but I think I can identify with most of them because I've been a passionate baseball fan all my life. I know that even the best baseball team cannot win every night, but I want to make sure our fans win every night - that they enjoy as many aspects of our game, our tradition and the Fenway experience as they can. If they don't, I want to know why and see what I can do to address their concerns immediately. It is the New England fans and their representative media that have created the romance, mystique and passion that we all feel when the words 'Boston Red Sox' are spoken.

"Larry Lucchino is my role model when it comes to baseball executives. His track record is impeccable. His commitment and passion for excellence on the field, creating fan-friendly environments and setting standards for community involvement make our ownership of the Red Sox something I look forward to each day.

"Tom Werner and I are like brothers. We talk every day about ideas on how to improve everything from the New England Sports Network to the length of the grass on the field. We are blessed with an incredibly strong ownership group that loves the Red Sox."

Henry was chairman and sole owner of the Florida Marlins prior to purchasing the Red Sox. In 2002 he begins his 14th year in baseball at an ownership level. His baseball experiences have garnered him seven championship rings at three different levels. He was a limited partner of the New York Yankees. He was chairman and majority owner of the Class AAA Tucson Toros of the Pacific Coast League. He formed a co-ownership with Boca attorney Don Sider in the West Palm Beach Tropics of the Senior Professional Baseball League. The Tropics, managed by World Series champion and former Red Sox manager Dick Williams posted a league-best 52-20 record in his one-year ownership and were led by Hall of Famer Rollie Fingers and former All-Stars Toby Harrah, Dave Kingman, Mickey Rivers and Al Hrabosky.

Away from the diamond, John is chairman of John W. Henry & Company, Inc. (JWH), which he founded in 1981. JWH is located in Boca Raton, Florida and is currently among the largest alternative investment firms in the world, managing foreign exchange, financial futures and commodities for leading money center banks, brokerage firms, multi-national corporations, retirement funds and private clients worldwide.

Henry has served on the Board of Directors of the Future Industry Association, National Association of Futures Trading Advisors (NAFTA) and the Managed Futures Trade Association. He is a recognized leader in alternative asset financial product innovation.

Born in Quincy, Illinois, John spent most of his childhood in Forrest City, Arkansas, where his parents owned a farm. He was a dyed-in-the-wool baseball fan growing up, listening to St. Louis Cardinal broadcaster, Harry Caray, on the radio, and at age nine, saw his first major league game at Sportsman's Park in St. Louis. In early 2002 he purchased a home in Boston.

THOMAS C. WERNER

Chairman

Tom Werner believes that all of his previous experiences in baseball and broadcasting have prepared him for the challenge and opportunity to contribute to the legacy of the Boston Red Sox. "John Henry, Larry Lucchino and I -- as well as our entire ownership group -- feel that we are custodians of this great franchise. We will work tirelessly for our fans to bring them the World Championship for which we all yearn."

Werner has been a life-long baseball fan. He played it in his childhood, coached his children later in youth baseball and has attended hundreds of MLB games. As a 17-year-old freshman at Harvard, Werner gave his heart to the ultimate underdogs, the Impossible Dreamers, the Red Sox of 1967. He has been a devoted follower of the Red Sox ever since. (In fact, for his visual studies class at Harvard, Werner created a documentary about Opening Day at Fenway Park, starting with the quiet, quaint park at rest, then exploding with the excitement of fans pouring into the park. The education in film would lead to a rewarding career in televsion; the passion for the Red Sox would lead to a rewarding career in baseball).

Werner's entry into Major League Baseball came in 1990, when he and his partners purchased the San Diego Padres. He was managing partner through 1994, and he served baseball on a national level as Chairman of the Television Committee and a member of the Executive Council. Tom was an early champion of the wild card concept, which he believed would create stronger fan interest in August and September. Although he takes no credit for this, Werner notes that the idea benefited the Boston Red Sox in the 1990s allowing them to play in the post-season in 1998 and 1999.

Tom approved some controversial trades during his tenure, but these helped the Padres win a division title in 1996 and a National League Pennant in 1998. Trading talent such as Gary Sheffield, Werner's Padres garnered future all-stars Trevor Hoffman, Brad Ausmus and Andy Ashby, and he laid the groundwork for a pivotal 12-man trade with Houston, ironically completed by Larry Lucchino a week after the sale that brought Steve Finley and Ken Caminiti to the club.

When Messrs. Henry, Werner and Lucchino talked to the players in spring training, Tom discussed the importance of communication and respect. He believes these ideas apply equally as one relationship the organization has with its fans. "The feelings Red Sox fans have with baseball is unique, and we consider it an honor and a goal to strengthen those ties in the years ahead."

Clutching values of integrity and quality, Tom (born April 12, 1950) has already achieved a lifetime of accolades in the television business. He and his partners at Carsey-Werner-Mandabach have produced such hits as "Cosby," "Different World," "Roseanne," "Third Rock from the Sun," "That '70s Show," and "That '80s Show."

He is already in the Television Hall of Fame and has received the Lifetime Achievement Award from the Producers Guild of America.

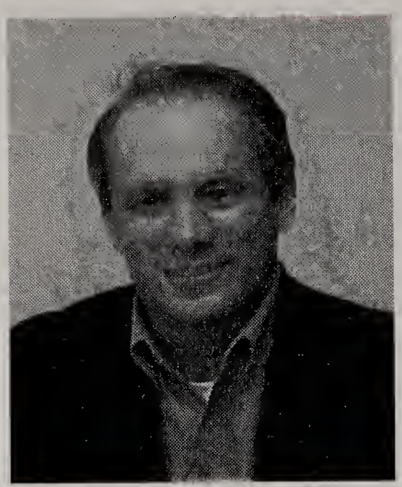
In 2000, Werner and his longtime partners Marcy Carsey and Caryn Mandabach joined forces with Geraldine Laybourne and Oprah Winfrey to start "Oxygen," a 24-hour cable network that combines the best qualities of the Internet and cable to serve the modern woman.

With the Red Sox, Tom can finally combine his considerable talents and passions for television and baseball at the New England Sports Network, the majority of which the club owns.

"NESN is the lens through which all of New England can get to know their Red Sox personally, and for me, baseball has always been just that--personal," said the Chairman of the Henry Werner Group."

LARRY LUCCHINO

President/CEO



Larry Lucchino was named President/CEO of the Red Sox at closing on February 27, 2002. He was President/CEO of the Baltimore Orioles (1988-93) and the San Diego Padres (1995-01) and is a veteran of 22 years in Major League Baseball.

During his tenure in San Diego, the Padres won two division titles (1996 and 1998) and a National League Pennant (1998). In the four-year period from 1996 through 1999, the Padres (339-309) had the best record in the N.L. West.

In his 5 full seasons as president/CEO of the Orioles, the Birds were in the thick of the A.L. East Pennant race through mid-September in 3 of the seasons (1989, 1992, 1993). The 1989 club finished just one game behind Toronto after a memorable final weekend showdown.

Off the field, Lucchino has helped usher in a new era in ballpark ambiance and architecture. He had the vision for Oriole Park at Camden Yards, a traditional, old-fashioned downtown ballpark with modern amenities. Lucchino's approach was inspired in part by Forbes Field in his native Pittsburgh and by Fenway Park in his new home, Boston.

In San Diego, Lucchino again conceived of a ballpark designed to suit its city. The downtown ballpark and redevelopment project, under construction and set to open in 2004, is designed to look and feel like San Diego. The park, whose design was completed in August, 2001, will once again break new ground in ballpark design and amenities.

Lucchino's passion for ballparks is rivaled by his passion for baseball's internationalization. His marketing efforts have led to historic achievements with Mexico, Hawaii and Japan, and he serves as a member of MLB's International Committee.

Regional marketing is also a Lucchino trademark. With the Orioles, his efforts expanded the Orioles' popularity to Washington, D.C. and Northern Virginia and tripled the Orioles' fan base from 2 million to 6 million. In Lucchino's 14 years with the Orioles, the season ticket base increased from 1,600 to 28,000 plus a 13,000-person waiting list.

In Lucchino's 7 years with the Padres, the season ticket base again increased, this time more than doubling from 5,081 to 12,380 through 2000. Under his leadership, the Padres recorded their all-time top 3 attendance figures in the last 4 years.

He has served on MLB's Restructuring Committee, the American League's Cable Television Committee and as Chairman of the Player Development Contract Negotiations Committee. He was a member of the Realignment Committee and the Commissioner's Blue Ribbon Task Force on Baseball Economics, which released its recommendations for attacking the game's economic and competitive balance issues in July, 2000.

Born in Pittsburgh (9/6/45), Lucchino was an All-City League basketball player and a second baseman on the city championship baseball team at Taylor Allderdice High School. He graduated with honors from Princeton University in 1967 and was a 1972 graduate of Yale Law School. At Princeton, he was a member of two Ivy League championship basketball teams coached by Butch Van Breda Kolff.

In 1978 he became a partner at Williams and Connolly, the law firm founded by his mentor, friend, legendary sportsman and trial attorney Edward Bennett Williams. Lucchino specialized in sports law and litigation. He was counsel to the Washington Redskins, where Williams was president and part owner, and was a member of the Redskins Board from 1979 to 1985. When EBW bought the Orioles on August 2, 1979, Lucchino also became the baseball club's vice president/general counsel. He was named president by EBW in May, 1988, to rebuild the club's baseball and business operations. He was a part-owner of the Orioles from 1989 until the club was sold at the end of the 1993 season and of the Padres from December 1994 to 2002.

The avid sportsman has the unique distinction of earning a World Series ring (Orioles, '83), Super Bowl ring (Redskins, '83) and Final Four watch (Princeton, '65). Lucchino has been active in numerous civic and charitable efforts in Baltimore and San Diego, with particular involvement in the research and treatment of cancer.

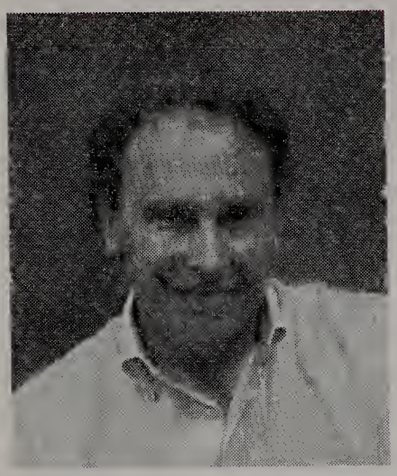
Vice Chairman



David Ginsberg became vice chairman of the Red Sox upon the closing of the sale, February 27, 2002. He assists Principal Owner John Henry and Chairman Tom Werner in the club's overall business, financial, organizational and strategic issues. LESLIE B. OTTEN

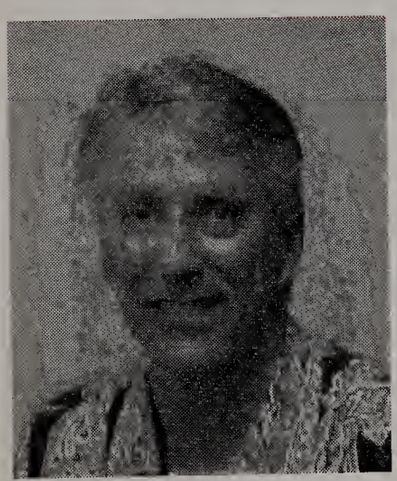
Vice Chairman



Leslie (Les) Otten became vice chairman of the Red Sox upon the closing of the sale on February 27, 2002.

Otten has been a fixture in the resort industry since he first entered Killington's management training program in 1972. He moved to a management position at Maine's Sunday River in 1973 and ultimately purchased the resort from the parent company in 1980.

Otten transformed Sunday River from a small resort to one of the nation's largest. In the process, he led many product and marketing innovations, including the introduction of shaped-ski technology in the learning process. His efforts led to numerous national awards, including Inc. Magazine's Turnaround Entrepreneur of the Year in 1989.

Between 1994 and 1995, Otten's company acquired numerous resorts, including Attitash and Cranmore (NH), and Sugarbush (VT). In 1996 he founded the American Skiing Company upon the successful acquisition of Mount Snow and Killington (VT), and Sugarloaf (ME). In 1997 the company became the nation's largest resort operator with the acquisition of The Canyons (UT), Steamboat (CO) and Heavenly (CA/NV).

Otten was the co-founder of Maine Handicap Skiing, a Sunday River-based entity that has taught skiing and snowboarding to thousands of disabled New Englanders. He is the past president and chairman of the Portland (ME) Museum of Art, a member of the Conservation Law Foundation Board of Directors, a Board member of the Maine Chamber and Business Alliance and a trustee at Gould Academy in Bethel, ME. He is a graduate of Ithaca College and a resident of Bethel, ME.

LUCINDA K. TREAT

Chief Legal Officer

She spent three seasons as vice president and corporate counsel for the Florida Marlins where she handled general corporate work and worked intensively on the Marlins' efforts to secure a new ballpark.

She joined the Marlins after serving as an associate at the New York law firm of Shearman and Sterling, where she was a member of the Mergers and Acquisitions practice group.

A Washington, D.C. native, Treat earned her bachelors degree from the University of Wisconsin and her law degree from Georgetown University Law Center.

Treat is a strong supporter of community efforts and serves as Chairman of the Board of Scenarios USA and Adopt-a-Classroom. She is relocating to the Boston area with her daughter, Madeline, and son, Remy.

A NEW DAY

On December 20, 2001, Boston Red Sox CEO John Harrington announced that the Yawkey Trust would sell the fabled franchise for $660 million to a group headed by John Henry, Tom Werner and Larry Lucchino.

At their first press conference, Friday, December 21, 2001, the leaders made five fundamental commitments to Red Sox fans and New England residents:

1. To field a team worthy of their support, with players whose performance and conduct will make them proud.
2. To preserve all that is good about the Fenway Park experience and to take that experience to new levels of warmth and hospitality.
3. To market aggressively and creatively the Red Sox throughout Boston, the Commonwealth and all of New England.
4. To be active participants in the community in terms of charitable and philanthropic activities.
5. To bring a World Series Championship back to Boston and New England.

On January 16, 2002, Major League Baseball approved the new group and the transfer, 29-0, with one abstention (the New York Yankees).

Upon the closing of the sale on February 27, 2002, Henry assumed the role of principal owner, Werner became chairman, and Lucchino took over as President/CEO.

Port was born and raised in California where he attended Fallbrook High School. He later attended the University of Santa Clara and graduated from California Western University as a Business Administration major.

Mike began his career in baseball when he was signed as an undrafted amateur free agent second baseman by the San Diego Padres organization in August 1968. In the spring of 1969, after injuring his right arm, he was released by the Padres as a player but was hired as the general manager for the Padres' minor league affiliate at Key West (FL St. Lg.). His manager at Key West was Don Zimmer. Later, he became the general manager at Lodi (California Lg.) from 1970-71. In 1972, he joined the Padres front office as promotions director. A year later, Mike became the Padres minor league director and in 1977, his title expanded to minor league director and assistant to the president.

In 1978, Mike left the Padres to join the California Angels as their minor league director. That November, the Angels promoted him to director of player personnel and development in charge of organizing their five minor league clubs, overseeing the scouting department and negotiating player contracts on the major and minor league levels. In January 1980, Mike was named vice president and chief administrative officer, and on September 1, 1984, he succeeded E.J. "Buzzie" Bavasi as the Angels executive vice president/general manager. During his tenure, the Angels won the western division in 1986 (they lost the A.L. Pennant in a seven-game series with the Red Sox), finished second in 1985 and third in 1989. Under his direction the Angels signed and developed: Chuck Finley, Wally Joyner, Devon White, Jim Edmonds, Jim Abbott, Tim Salmon, Damien Easley, Gary DiSarcina and Garrett Anderson.

After leaving the Angels in late 1991, Mike became president of the Arizona Fall Lg. in its first year in 1992. He headed the league's initial organization and is credited with much of its success, as each year it helps to facilitate the development of young talent from M.L. clubs.

Mike was the recipient of The Boston Baseball Writers' Association annual "Good Guy" Award presented in January 2000.

Mike and his wife, Ann, currently live in Southboro, MA. His two grown sons, Brian and Adam, reside in California. His stepson, Paul, and daughter-in-law, Richelle, and grandchildren, Alec and Mackenna, live in Arizona.

A THANK YOU TO JOHN L. HARRINGTON

On January 16, 2002, major league owners approved the sale of the Red Sox by the Yawkey Trust to an ownership group led by John Henry, Tom Werner, and Larry Lucchino, thus ending the 68-year ownership by the Yawkey family. John L. Harrington, Red Sox chief executive officer and trustee of the Jean R. Yawkey Trust, oversaw the operation of one of baseball's jewel franchises as well as the Yawkey Foundation, a source of support for local charities involved in education, health care, youth sports, and other worthy causes. John came to the Red Sox as treasurer in 1972, and in 1981 he joined Mrs. Yawkey as a trustee for her trust, which was general partner of the Red Sox.

The Jean R. Yawkey ownership commenced in 1976 upon the death of Jean's husband, Tom, and since that time the Red Sox produced numerous competitive teams, all with a cumulative record of 2,172 wins and 1,915 losses, which is the second best record of all Major League Baseball teams.

During Harrington's 29-year involvement, the Red Sox have appeared in post-season play 7 times, set all-time franchise home attendance records in 2000 and 2001, and have been the 2nd best draw on the road in the A.L. during the last 2 seasons. Under his leadership, the Red Sox have significantly expanded and renovated Fenway Park. In addition, the team moved its spring training headquarters in 1993 to a new state-of-the-art facility in Fort Myers, FL.

It was Harrington's responsibility to ensure the team's sale would bring the greatest return to the Yawkey Foundation, the Trust's beneficiary. The sale achieved a record-breaking price, $700 million more than double that of any other baseball team in history. This unprecedented value is a tribute to the loyalty and support of our fans, who have made the Red Sox a storied franchise.

Harrington served as a member of many of Major League Baseball's key committees, such as the prestigious Executive Council and the Strategic Planning Committee, chaired several others such as the Expansion Committee, the Realignment Committee and the Revenue Sharing Committee, and co-chaired the Blue Ribbon Committee and Labor Policy Committee. Under his leadership the Yawkey Foundation and the Red Sox have helped countless worthy local causes, notably the Jimmy Fund, Rosie's Place, Massachusetts General Hospital, the United Way, the Pine Street Inn, the Greater Boston Food Bank, the Boys and Girls Clubs and youth baseball and softball programs. Through the Yawkey Foundation, the Yawkey's legacy of contributing to the community will go on forever.

Harrington received numerous awards and honors for his professional and charitable deeds, including the prestigious 2000 Arnold Z. Rosoff Award for Achievement in Diversity in the Outreach to Ethnic Community category that he accepted on behalf of the entire Red Sox organization.

John will always be remembered for his sincere and caring leadership, his friendly demeanor, and his competitive spirit, which were fixtures at Fenway Park for so many years. His continued involvement with the Yawkey Foundation, now one of the largest charitable foundations in the Northeast with the return of more than $400 million to the Yawkey Trust from the sale of the team, will ensure a perpetual source of support for many deserving and worthy local charities.

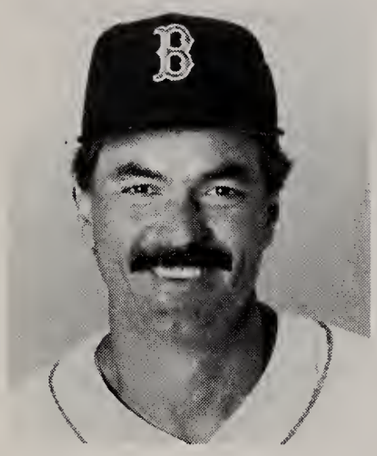
DWIGHT MICHAEL (DWIGHT) EVANS #25

Age: 50; Born: November 3, 1951, Santa Monica, CA. Ht.: 6-3; Wt.: 205. Bats and Throws: Right. Home: Lynnfield, MA. Married: Susan Ann Severson. Children: Timothy Scott 2/14/73, Kirstin Ann 11/30/75, Justin Dwight 3/29/77.



Dwight has returned to the major leagues this season as the Red Sox hitting coach after a seven-year absence. On June 22, 2001 Evans rejoined the Red Sox as a player development consultant and specialized in outfield and hitting instruction throughout the club's minor league system. In December he was promoted to Manager Joe Kerrigan's major league staff.

After a 20-year major league career (19 with the Red Sox) Dwight retired following the 1991 season (Baltimore) and then worked in 1993 as the minor league roving hitting instructor for the Chicago White Sox. In 1994 he was the major league hitting coach and outfield instructor for the Colorado Rockies.

Evans, who was inducted into the Red Sox Hall of Fame in 2000, played in 2,505 games for the Red Sox (1972-90), second-most in team history. The three-time All-Star and eight-time Rawlings Gold Glove right fielder hit 379 HR and 925 extra-base hits and had 1,346 RBI. He ranks second all-time for the Red Sox in games and at-bats (8,726), third in extra-base hits, R (1,435), doubles (474) and walks (1,337) and fourth in HR, RBI, hits (2,373) and TB (4,128).

From 1981-90 Dwight hit 251 HR, the most of any A.L. player. He tied for the A.L. lead in HR in 1981 and led the league in walks three times. During the 1980's he had 605 extra-base hits, more than any other major league player. Evans was a superb right fielder who had one of the strongest and most accurate arms in the game. He led the A.L. with a .994 fielding pct. in 1976 and in double plays in 1975 and 1980. Dwight holds the club record for most career putouts by an outfielder (4,255) and ranks second in outfield games played (2,079), third in outfield career double plays (40) and fifth with 151 outfield career assists including 15 in 1975-76-79. He had a 191-game errorless outfield streak in 1973-74 and is remembered for his great catch in the 11th inning of Game Six of the 1975 World Series vs. Cincinnati at Fenway Park that took a HR away from Joe Morgan and resulted in an inning-ending double play. On April 7, 1986 he became the first player in M.L. history to hit the first pitch of the first game of the season for a HR (in Detroit off RHP Jack Morris).

Evans hit .300 (15-50) in two World Series with the Red Sox (1975 and 1986) with three HR and 14 RBI in 14 games. He also played in the ALCS against Oakland in 1988 and 1990 and was 3-5 .600 with three walks in three All-Star Games. Dwight was voted winner of the Thomas A. Yawkey team MVP award four times by the Boston chapter of the BBWAA, tied for second best with Ted Williams, Roger Clemens and Mo Vaughn, behind Carl Yastrzemski (6 selections).

In the 1969 June draft Evans was the Red Sox 5th selection after being All-League as a third baseman-outfielder at Chatsworth H.S. in Los Angeles. In 1972 he was the MVP of the International Lg. when he hit .300 at AAA Louisville in 144 games with 17 HR and a league-best 95 RBI. He joined the Red Sox that September and had a 20-year M.L. career that produced a .272 batting average in 2,606 games with 385 HR, 1,384 RBI, 941 extra-base hits and 1,391 walks.

In Feb. 2002 Dwight was inducted into the Ted Williams Hitters Hall of Fame in Hernando, FL.

The Red Sox also played an exhibition game at Milwaukee's new Miller Park, their first meeting vs. the Brewers since they switched to the National League in 1998.

April Action: The Red Sox had a 16-9 record in April, ending the month with a 1/2 game lead in the A.L. East. Boston lost two of three games at Baltimore to start the season then returned home to win 7 of the next 10 games which included winning three of four from the Yankees. The Sox recorded a five-game winning streak from April 15-19, their longest winning streak, tied two other times during the season. In addition to Hideo Nomo's no-hitter in Balt. April 4, April highlights included a 3-0 win vs. Tampa Bay on April 8 in which Pedro Martinez struck out 16 and a two-out last of the 10th 3-2 comeback win vs. Mariano Rivera of the Yankees April 13 when Manny Ramirez hit a 2-run, game-winning single. Ramirez had a stellar April, hitting safely in 22 of 25 games batting .408 (40-98) w/9 HR and 31 RBI. He was named A.L. Player of the Month for his efforts. The game lasted 5:52 as Tim Wakefield got the win and was the Sox seventh pitcher of the night. The Sox lost 8-7 in 18 innings at Texas on August 25. Boston used nine pitchers as Derek Lowe recorded the loss in a game that took 6:35 to play, the longest game by time in Sox history. Hideo Nomo's no-hitter: Hideo Nomo pitched the 16th no-hitter in Red Sox history, winning 3-0 at Baltimore on April 4 in his Sox debut. The no-hitter was the first by a Sox pitcher since Dave Morehead beat Cleveland 2-0 in Fenway Park September 16, 1965, and the second of his career. Nomo became the fourth pitcher in ML history to throw a no-hitter in both leagues. It was the 15th straight full season the club exceeded 2 million fans at home. On the road, the team drew a club record 2,700,811, 2nd best in the A. L., the 12th straight full season (15th time overall) they did so.

SACRIFICE BUNTS/FLIES

Sacrifice bunts were first recorded in 1889. They were credited to batters for advancing runners on any out and at-bats were charged. In 1894 the rule was changed so that only bunts were counted as sacrifices with no at-bats charged. A sacrifice fly was tabulated with no time at bat for scoring a runner with a fly ball out from 1908 to 1930, 1939 and 1954 to the present. In addition, from 1926 to 1930, a sacrifice fly was counted for advancing any runner with a fly ball out.

REACHING BASE 300 TIMES
(H+BB+HP)

Reaching base 300 times by hits, walks and hit by pitches is a difficult feat. It has been done by only 60 players since 1901 (a total of 122 times). Thirty-two A.L. players have done it (72 times) and 28 N.L. players (50 times). Bonds in 2001 and Boggs in 1988 reached 342 times to tie Lou Gehrig for the 6th best all-time, the most since T. Williams reached 358 times in 1949. Thirteen players have done it 3 or more times: Gehrig and Ruth 9, Williams 7, Boggs and Musial 6, Rose and Bonds 5, Foxx, Hornsby and Bagwell 4, Gehringer, Mantle, Speaker and Thomas 3. Boggs' total of 292 in 1984 fell 8 short but still led the M.L.

RED SOX ROOKIES WITH TEN TRIPLES

In 1997 Nomar Garciaparra led the American League with 11 triples, the first Red Sox to lead the A.L. in triples since Jim Rice led with15 in 1978. He became the seventh Red Sox rookie to hit 10 or more triples and the first since Ted Williams hit 11 in 1939. Only five other Red Sox have led the A.L. in triples: Carlton Fisk as a rookie in 1972 tied with nine; Jackie Jensen in 1956 tied with 11; Dom DiMaggio & Bobby Doerr in 1950 tied with 11; and Chick Stahl in 1904 led with 22, a Sox record tied by Tris Speaker in 1912. Garciaparra and Fisk are the only Sox rookies to lead the A.L.

LONGEST KNOWN HR AT FENWAY PARK

On June 19, 1977 Carl Yastrzemski hit the longest known home run to the right of the bleachers, an 8th-inning bomb off Yankee RHP Dick Tidrow. It reached approximately 460 feet before striking the facing of the RF roof about 20 feet to the right of where the retired #42 now appears. It is the only ball to reach the RF roof facade.

On September 21, 1956 Mickey Mantle of the Yankees, batting left-handed, hit the longest known home run to straight-away CF off RHP Frank Sullivan. The ball failed to clear the old brick wall by a foot. It carried approximately 480 feet when it struck the brick barrier located behind Section 36.

On June 9 1946 Ted Williams hit a monumental 502-foot home run to RF off Detroit RHP Fred Hutchinson. The ball landed on top of the straw hat of Joseph A. Boucher, 56, a construction engineer from Albany, NY who was sitting in Section 42, Row 37, Seat 21. "The sun was right in our eyes," he said. "All we could do was duck. I'm glad I didn't stand up. They say it bounced a dozen rows higher, but after it hit my head, I was no longer interested." At that time the bleachers were real bleachers and not individual seats.

Six home runs were hit over the old CF wall to the right of the flag pole. The elevation over the old brick wall was installed prior to the 1976 season. No one has hit a home run over the new elevation.

NOTE: A uniform GWRBI rule was adopted by both leagues in 1979 — "The RBI that gives a team a lead it never relinquishes." Until 1979 the Red Sox rule was simply, the run that was one more than the opposition's final score. GWRBI was discontinued as an official statistic after the 1988 season. * A.L. record

RED SOX CG EXTRA-INNING SHUTOUTS

The Red Sox have had 26 complete-game, extra-inning shutouts. Twenty pitchers accomplished that feat for 24 wins and two ties. The last Sox pitcher to do so was LH Bruce Hurst, Aug. 7, 1988, when he won 3-0 in 10 innings in Detroit. That was the first since RH Mike Torrez topped Minnesota 1-0 in 10 innings in Fenway Park July 18, 1980.

Cy Young had four such games (1903, 1904 and 2 in 1907), including one tie. The only other Sox hurlers to have more than one were LH Ray Collins (1913, 1914), and RHs Sam Jones (1918) and Joe Bush (2 in 13 days in 1918), all with two. Jones, 1-0 (10 innings, 1st gm. of DH) vs. Cleveland July 8, and Bush, 1-0 (12 innings) vs. Cleveland July 9, did so on consecutive days in Fenway.

Young went 15 innings (the longest SHO) to beat Detroit 1-0 in the Huntington Ave. Grounds May 11, 1904. Babe Ruth had the longest effort by a LH, a 1-0, 13-inning win vs. Washington Aug. 15, 1916 in Fenway. Other 13-inning shutouts were by Young, a 0-0 tie vs. Philadelphia Sept. 9, 1907 in the Huntington Ave. Grounds and Ed Durham, who beat Detroit 1-0 in Fenway Sept. 12, 1931. Lloyd Brown (1933) and Dutch Leonard (1916) were the only other LHs, in addition to Hurst, Collins and Ruth, to have extra-inning shutouts.

Complete game, extra-inning shutouts since 1918:

10-K GAMES VS. RED SOX

Six pitchers struck out 10 or more Red Sox in 2001. Mike Mussina had 3 such games, two in Fenway Park. He became the first pitcher with 3 such games in one season vs. the Red Sox since Nolan Ryan also had 3 in 1974 for Cal. (53 K in 31 IP). In 2000 Mussina fanned 15 Red Sox Sept. 24 and 10 Sox June 27, both times in Fenway Park. The 15 K were the most by opp. pitcher vs. Sox since Randy Johnson had 15 for Sea. Apr. 10, 1998 and Roger Clemens had 16 for Tor. July 12, 1997. In 1985, 1988 and 1991 the Red Sox never fanned 10 times in a game. Prior to Jason Bere in 1993, the last pitchers to whiff 13 Red Sox were Nolan Ryan, Aug. 16, 1978 in Anaheim (9 IP) and LH Mike Flanagan June 30, 1978 in Balt. (9 IP). Since 1974 the only pitchers with more than 13 K vs. the Red Sox are Ryan with 15 twice, May 6, 1977 in Fenway (8.2 IP) and June 19, 1976 in Anaheim (9 IP), Roger Clemens, 16, July 12, 1997 in Fenway (8 IP), Johnson, 15, Apr. 10, 1998 in Fenway (8 IP) and Mussina, 15, Sept. 24, 2000 in Fenway (7 IP).

MOST STRIKEOUTS VS. RED SOX, 1972-01

Randy Johnson's 15 strikeouts Apr. 10, 1998 were the most by a LH vs. the Red Sox since Mickey Lolich had 15 Oct. 2, 1972 in Det. When Roger Clemens fanned 16 Red Sox July 12, 1997 in Fenway Park it was the first time in 20 years an opposing pitcher struck out more than 13 Sox. From 1972 through 2001 only six pitchers struck out more than 13 Red Sox in one game (a total of 11 times). Nolan Ryan had six such efforts, all from 1972 through 1977, including three in 1974.

RED SOX FIELDING

In 1997 shortstop Nomar Garciaparra took part in 133 double plays, a Red Sox rookie record and the most by a Sox shortstop since Rick Burleson set the major league record with 147 in 1980...Only two players have played in 4,000 games in the outfield for the Red Sox, Dwight Evans (4,255 games, 1972-90) and Ted Williams (4,158 games, 1939-60)...The last Red Sox outfielder to have 20 assists in one season was Jim Rice with 21 in 1983, the only Sox to do so since 1944.

TRIPLE PLAYS

On July 8, 1994 in Fenway Park, SS JOHN VALENTIN made an unassisted triple play (9th in regular-season M.L. history, 10th overall) in the 6th inning vs. Seattle (1B George Burns 9/14/23 vs. Clev. is the only other SOX to do so). With Mike Blowers on 2nd base and Keith Mitchell on 1st, Marc Newfield hit a line drive to VALENTIN, who then tagged 2nd to retire Blowers and also tagged Mitchell out between 1st and 2nd to complete the rare play. Ironically, VALENTIN led off the bottom of the inning with the SOX trailing 2-0. He hit a 3-2 pitch off LH Dave Fleming into the LF net for a HR, only the 2nd of the 10 to hit a HR in the same inning in which he made the TP (SS Neal Ball, Clev. vs. the SOX, 7/19/09, the other). The SOX scored four times in the 6th and then held on for an exciting 4-3 win before 33,355. It was the SOX first triple play since 7/28/79, when they tied the Major League record by making three that year. Those were the first SOX triple plays since 5/25/72 vs. the Orioles in Fenway Park. The 1979 record-tying triple plays were:

Date	Opp.	Batter	Inn.	How
5/10	Angels	Rudi	7	Pop in short RF to Remy (2B), to Burleson (SS) to Scott (1B).
7/23	Angels	Aikens	8	Liner to Burleson (SS), tagged 2B, threw to Yaz (1B).
7/28	at Texas	Oliver	1	1st and 3rd, pop in short RF to Brohamer (2B), to Watson (1B) to Hobson (3B).

The RED SOX hit into their first triple play in over five years when SCOTT HATTEBERG lined into one, 6-4, Aug. 6, 2001 in the 4th inning vs. Texas in Fenway Park. In the 6th inning HATTEBERG hit a grand slam HR as the Sox won 10-7. Thru 2001 he was the only M.L. player to hit into a TP and hit a GS HR in the same game. Prior to HATTEBERG the last Sox to hit into a TP was TIM NAEHRING who grounded into one, 5-4-3 June 6, 1996 in the first inning vs. Chicago in Fenway Park. The RED SOX won 7-4 as JOHN VALENTIN hit for the cycle. On July 17, 1990 in Fenway Park vs. Minnesota the RED SOX became the first major league team to hit into two triple plays in the same game. In fact it is the only game in major league history to have two triple plays. In the 4th inning, with the bases loaded, TOM BRUNANSKY grounded to 3B Gary Gaetti, who stepped on 3rd, then threw to 2B Al Newman who relayed to 1B Kent Hrbek to complete the 3 outs. In the 8th inning, with runners on 1st and 2nd, JODY REED grounded to Gaetti, who stepped on 3rd to start another Newman to Hrbek triple-play relay. In spite of the history-making event, the Red Sox won the game 1-0.

Prior to 1990 the last one against the RED SOX was 7/4/88 in Kansas City. JIM RICE flied out to Willie Wilson in CF, who threw to 2B Frank White to double up MIKE GREENWELL, White then threw to 1B George Brett to get ELLIS BURKS. Prior to that the last one was 9/4/65 in N.Y. BOB TILLMAN grounded to Clete Boyer at 3B, who started a 5-4-3 DP with Bobby Richardson and Joe Pepitone. Pepitone then threw back to Boyer to get TONY CONIGLIARO at third.

THE HISTORY OF THE BOSTON RED SOX

1901-1909

The American League was formed in 1901, and Boston is one of only four cities to have remained in the league for all 100 years with Chicago, Detroit and Cleveland. The Boston American League Base Ball Club, officially known as the Americans, but also known by the media as the Pilgrims or Somersets after owner Charles Somers, started their inaugural season on the road April 26 against the Baltimore Orioles (now the New York Yankees), but didn't pick up their first win until April 30 in Philadelphia, in a 10-inning 8-6 decision pitched by Cy Young. Young also pitched and won the Huntington Avenue Grounds home opener May 8 against Philadelphia, 12 – 4. In 1903, the team finished in first place with a 91– 47 record earning themselves a berth in the first-ever World Series against the National League Pittsburgh Pirates. Game One of the first World Series was played at Huntington Avenue and pitched by Young, who lost but then won two games in the Series. The Pilgrims won five games to three, in a best of nine series, bolstered by their band of fans, the "Royal Rooters" who were known for their rowdy behavior. 1904 brought another successful year for the Pilgrims, with Cy Young pitching the first perfect game of the modern era in the Huntington Avenue Grounds against Philadelphia on May 5. With a 95 – 59 record, the 1904 Pilgrims were set to play the New York Giants in the World Series, but Giants manager John McGraw and owner John Brush refused to play, making this the first of only two times since 1903 when the World Series was not played. The Pilgrims, also were known as the Puritans in 1905. In 1907, the cross-town National League Red Stockings adopted the name "Doves" and changed the team colors from red to blue. Puritans owner John I. Taylor snapped up the popular color, and renamed his team the Red Sox. In the latter half of the decade, Young continued to dominate, throwing a no-hitter in New York in 1908 on the way to his record 511 career wins. The Red Sox, however, would not see post-season play again until the next decade.

1910-1919

Taylor decided the Red Sox needed a new ballpark, Fenway Park opened in 1912, and a decade of dynasty began. The new park, called Fenway Park because of its location in the Fenway part of Boston, opened on April 20, 1912, with the Red Sox taking a 7 – 6, 11-inning decision from the New York Highlanders (Yankees). With a 105 – 47 record, the Sox headed for the World Series led by fireballer Smoky Joe Wood's 34 – 5 record, and centerfielder Tris Speaker's .383 batting average. This time, John McGraw did bring the New York Giants to the World Series, and the Sox summarily defeated them four games to three. The Red Sox picked up a young left-handed pitcher in 1914 by the name of George Herman "Babe" Ruth, who would figure prominently in the Red Sox World Series dynasty of the next several years. The Red Sox went to the World Series three more times in the teens, and emerged victorious with each visit. The 1915 World Series was marked by the strong hitting performances of the legendary Sox outfield of Duffy Lewis, Tris Speaker, and Harry Hooper. After dropping Game One, the Sox won the next four to defeat the Philadelphia Phillies for the championship. In 1916, Ruth was the season and the Series hero, with a 23 – 12 regular season record and a 1.75 ERA. In Game Two of the World Series, Ruth pitched a 14-inning, complete game 2 – 1 win against the Brooklyn Dodgers, while the Sox went on to take the Series four games to one for the second straight year. The Red Sox played their World Series games in 1915 and 1916 in the new and larger capacity National League Braves Field on Commonwealth Avenue, which held 40,000 fans. In 1918, Ruth extended his streak to 29 2/3 scoreless World Series innings, a record that stood until 1961, and also tied for the league lead with11 home runs. In the World Series against the Chicago Cubs, Ruth and Carl Mays each won two games to lead the Sox to their fourth world championship in seven years. The next decade, however, would not be so kind to the Red Sox.

1920-1929

After Sox owner Harry Frazee sold Ruth and most of his best players to the Yankees, the "Roaring Twenties" were anything but for the ailing Red Sox. The team failed to clear the .500 mark in each year of the decade, losing over 100 games in three consecutive seasons from 1925 – 1927. To add to the difficulty on the field, the ballpark itself suffered a setback. In 1926, fire roared through Fenway Park, destroying much of the left-field bleacher sections. Unable to cover the cost of repairing the damage, then-owner Bob Quinn could not rebuild the sections, and the difficult decade for the Sox continued. All was not gloomy, however, as there were several standout performances by individual players during the decade. Pitcher Sam Jones won 23 games in 1921, and Howard Ehmke won 39 games for the Sox in 1923 – 1924, including a no-hitter against Philadelphia in 1923. First baseman Stuffy McInnis, a member of the 1918 world champion team, set American League fielding records with a .999 fielding pct. in 1921 and still holds the Red Sox career fielding pct. record at first base of .996.

1930-1939

The 30's brightened for the Red Sox, and though the team did not make it back to the great years of the teens, a new dynasty of ownership began in 1933, when 30-year-old millionaire Tom Yawkey bought the club. His first order of business was to rebuild the fire-scarred stadium. Ironically, on the night of January 4, 1934, during the construction of the new Fenway Park, another fire raged through the ballpark, destroying much of the progress. The park was ready for Opening Day 1934, however, when the Sox lost to Joe Cronin and his Washington Senators on April 17. The Red Sox fielded far better teams in the 1930's than they had in the decade prior, and also saw attendance figures increase, especially after Fenway was refurbished. On August 12, 1934, 46,766 fans attended Ruth's farewell game at Fenway, spilling out onto the field. The next season, the Sox set their record single-day attendance which still stands, with 47,627 fans attending a doubleheader on September 22 against the Yankees. 1935 also saw shortstop Joe Cronin traded to the Sox from Washington to become player-manager. 1938 was the high point of the decade, with Cronin leading the Sox to an 88 – 61 record, and MVP Jimmie Foxx hitting a still-standing team-record 50 home runs with 175 RBI and a league-high .349 average. Veteran pitcher Lefty Grove led the league in ERA for four of the last five years of the decade. 1939 also brought forth a new era in Red Sox baseball, when Ted Williams began his legendary Red Sox career. That season, the Red Sox had five future Hall of Famers on the roster including Williams, Cronin, Foxx, Grove and Bobby Doerr, and they finished with a strong 89 – 62 record. This decade also saw the Red Sox take the field with numbers on their uniforms for the first time in 1931. For some Red Sox players, these were the numbers that would forever be associated with them as Boston legends.

1940-1949

The 40's got even better for the Red Sox. 1941 was a landmark year for the team, with Williams hitting .406 and Grove picking up his 300th career win. Williams is the last man to hit over .400 for a season, and Grove is one of two pitchers to get his 300th win as a Red Sox, the other being Cy Young. Williams continued his consistent hitting by picking up his first Triple Crown in 1942, and his second of four batting titles in the forties. Rookie Dave Ferriss was 21 – 10 in 1945, on his way to helping the team return to the World Series in 1946 when he was 25 – 6. The Sox won the pennant by a comfortable 12-game margin in 1946, winning 104 games in the process, but lost the World Series for the first time in franchise history to the St. Louis Cardinals in seven games. Fenway also played host to the 1946 All-Star Game, in which Williams went 4 for 4 with two home runs and five RBI. Coming off the AL pennant year, Williams won a second Triple Crown in 1947. Lights were also installed that season to start the era of night baseball at Fenway. 1948 and 1949 were both tough seasons for the Red Sox. While collecting 96 wins in each year, they finished both seasons only one game out of first place. They lost a one-game playoff to the Cleveland Indians in 1948. Had the Sox won that game, they would have played the Boston Braves in the World Series. In 1949, they lost the final two games of the season in Yankee Stadium to finish one game behind the Yankees. The Sox teams of the late 40's were led by pitcher Mel Parnell who won 25 games and the ERA title in 1949, while Ellis Kinder also picked up 23 victories in 1949. By the end of the 1940's, however, Williams had clearly established himself as one of the greatest players in baseball. He had played eight seasons of major league baseball through 1949, during which time he amassed two MVPs, two Triple Crowns, four RBI titles (one tied with teammate Vern Stephens), four home run titles, and four batting titles. Dom DiMaggio, one of baseball's greatest centerfielders, had a .298 career average, scored 100 runs seven times, was a seven-time All-Star and led the AL in 1950 with 11 triples, 15 stolen bases, and 131 runs scored. In 1948, he had 503 putouts, playing in the AL's smallest park, a record that stood until 1977. He is one of only five outfielders to have 500 putouts in one season. Johnny Pesky, an excellent all-around shortstop, had 200 hits in each of his first three major league seasons, and had a .313 career average for the Red Sox. The decade, overall, was the most successful for the team since the teens.

1950-1959

The 50's were another decade of strong hitting for the Sox, starting off with the Rookie of the Year Award-winning performance by first baseman Walter Dropo in 1950. Walter was a part of perhaps the best hitting Red Sox team ever, with the starting lineup averaging .313, and the entire team hitting .302. Infielder Billy Goodman won the batting championship in 1950 with his .354 average, while the team amassed a 94 – 60 record, which would ultimately be their best for the decade. For the second time in his career, Williams put off baseball for military service in the Korean War in 1951 and 1952, after serving three years during World War II. Upon his return, he continued his usual impressive hitting numbers with a tremendous league-leading .388 in 1957 with 38 home runs and winning a second straight title with a .328 average at the age of 40 in 1958. Meanwhile, Jackie Jensen won the RBI title in 1955 (tied), 1958 and 1959, and the MVP in 1958. Rookie third baseman Frank Malzone joined the team full-time in 1957 and won three Gold Glove Awards in 1957, 1958, and 1959. Some Red Sox pitchers also fared well in the 1950's, as Parnell continued his successful pitching through the first half of the decade, winning 69 games for the Sox from 1950 to 1953 along with a no-hitter in 1956. Frank Sullivan had 90 wins from 1954 to 1960, and Ellis Kinder became one of the American League's best relief pitchers of the early 1950's. In 1959 infielder Pumpsie Green made his debut as the first Red Sox African-American ballplayer.

The end of the 50's also brought the end of the Williams era in Red Sox history. Never one to go out quietly, Williams hit his 521st and final home run into the Red Sox bullpen in his final at-bat on September 28, 1960. The spot he vacated in left field was filled in 1961 by rookie Carl Yastrzemski who would later match some of Williams' feats, while pitcher Don Schwall would collect Rookie of the Year honors after winning his first 10 straight decisions at Fenway on the way to a 15–7 record overall. Fenway Park also hosted the 1961 All-Star Game, only the second such game in the park's 50-year history. Sox pitching landmarks continued in 1962 when both Earl Wilson and Bill Monbouquette pitched no hitters, while Monbouquette went on to win 20 games in 1963, and Yaz won his first batting title. Dave Morehead would also throw a no-hitter on September 16, 1965 against Cleveland at Fenway Park, but the Sox had their worst record of that decade, losing 100 games overall. One bright spot of 1965 was the emergence of Lynn, MA native Tony Conigliaro, who hit a league-leading 32 homers in his second season, the second of his six consecutive seasons of 20 or more home runs. After another losing season, finishing ninth in 1966, the Red Sox overcame 100–1 odds and won the "Impossible Dream" pennant in 1967, with a 92–70 record. Though they did not win the World Series, that season lives on as one of the greatest in Red Sox history. 1967 proved to be career years for Jim Lonborg, who had a 22 - 9 record plus two wins in the World Series on his way to the Cy Young Award, and Yastrzemski, who won the Triple Crown and MVP. First baseman George Scott and outfielder Reggie Smith were key performers in the Red Sox pennant drive. Ken Harrelson led the league with 109 RBI in 1968, while Yaz continued his strong hitting and won his third batting title. Yaz and Rico Petrocelli finished the 60's with a 40-home run season in 1969, ready to lead the Sox into the next decade.

The era of Yaz continued into the 70's while he again hit 40 home runs and led younger players, such as Conigliaro, who notched 36 home runs in 1970. In 1972, another young player made his mark by winning the Rookie of the Year Award. Catcher Carlton Fisk, a New Hampshire native, made his first full year in the majors count, leading the Red Sox to a second-place finish, just ½ game out of first place, for their best finish since 1967. His batterymate, Luis Tiant, thrilled Sox fans and took home the ERA title that season. Two other famous rookies, Jim Rice and Fred Lynn, were added to the mix in 1975, and made their mark on another AL championship season. Lynn won both MVP and Rookie of the Year honors, the first player to do so in the same year, while Rice hit 22 home runs and Lynn hit 21. Tiant, Rick Wise, and Bill Lee combined for 54 of the Red Sox 95 wins in 1975, with Tiant and Wise pitching all three of the Red Sox wins in the World Series. In Game 6, Bernie Carbo's two-out, three-run home run in the 8th inning tied the game paving the way for the subsequent dramatics. Fisk left his mark on baseball history during Game 6 of the Series, when he hit a 12th-inning pitch off the left-field foul pole for a dramatic finish for the Red Sox, in what many consider to be the greatest World Series game ever. Once again, however, the Sox came up short, and were defeated by the Cincinnati Reds in seven games. On July 9, 1976 owner Tom Yawkey passed away. Mrs. Jean R. Yawkey, Haywood Sullivan and Edward "Buddy" LeRoux were approved by the A.L. as the new owners in May, 1978. The Sox continued to be successful through the end of the 1970's. In 1977 they had 97 wins, just 2 ½ games out of first. They finished 1978 with 99 wins, just one game out again, after losing 5 – 4 in a playoff game against the Yankees. Those two seasons were great years for Rice, who won the home run title in 1977, and took home MVP honors in 1978, after ending the season with the home run and RBI crowns. Lynn had a terrific 1979 season and won the batting championship, while Yaz got his 3,000th hit on September 12. That July, he also hit his 400th home run. Dwight Evans also did his part, not only with his bat, but also in right field, picking up three Gold Glove Awards in the last four seasons of the decade. Versatile Bob Stanley made his entry upon the scene in 1977, and in his 12-year Red Sox career racked up 132 saves to become the club's all-time leader in saves and games pitched. Shortstop Rick Burleson teamed up with second baseman and Fall River, MA native Jerry Remy to form one of the club's best double play combinations ever.

1980-1989

Though the 80's started out with labor difficulties in baseball, Sox 3B Carney Lansford was able to win a batting championship in 1981. Dwight Evans tied for the 1981 league HR title, one of seven of his 20-plus HR seasons in the decade. Rice won the HR title in 1983 with 39, followed closely by Tony Armas, who had 36. Armas then hit 43 in 1984 to lead the league. The early 80's were not particularly successful for the Red Sox as a team, however, and they failed to finish higher than 3rd until their American League championship season of 1986. Evans got 1986 off to an auspicious start, hammering a home run in Detroit off the first pitch a major league player saw that season. Roger Clemens, who won the Cy Young Award and MVP honors, dominated AL batters in 1986, winning 24 games, including his first 14 decisions in a row, with a 2.48 ERA. He also broke a major league record, striking out 20 batters in one game against Seattle on April 29. Under Mgr. John McNamara's leadership, the team won 95 games in 1986 and came from a three games to one deficit in the ALCS to a World Series matchup with the Mets. After a seven-game battle in the World Series, the Sox lost in seven games. Overall, however, the season was filled with many personal milestones for Red Sox players, with Rice accumulating his 2000th hit, Don Baylor hitting his 200th homer, Clemens winning 20 games for the first time, and Wade Boggs winning his second of five batting titles for the decade. In 1987, Boggs won another batting title while Clemens had his 2nd 20-win season and Cy Young Award, but the Red Sox finished a disappointing fifth. The Red Sox returned to their winning ways in the late 80s, topping the AL East again in 1988 with Joe Morgan's miracle team. After Morgan took over the team from John McNamara in July, the Sox won 12 straight and 19 of 20 games, to come from nine games behind and move into first place in the AL East. "Morgan's Magic" became the team's slogan, but the Red Sox were overpowered by the Oakland A's in the ALCS. Nevertheless, the successful teams of the late 80's ushered in a decade of milestones and achievements in the 1990's.

1990-1999

The Sox started the decade off on the right foot. They won the AL East in 1990 with strong performances by Boggs, Evans, Clemens, Mike Boddicker, and rightfielder Tom Brunansky, whose great diving catch saved the final game of the season. Once again, the Sox played the Oakland A's in the ALCS, and met the same fate, losing in four games. 1991 brought the beginning of the Mo Vaughn era in Boston, and the hard-hitting first baseman took his place as a fan favorite, while Dalton, MA native Jeff Reardon pitched his way to 40 saves as the Sox headed to a second-place finish. In February 1992 Mrs. Yawkey passed away leaving her majority general partnership to the continued direction of John L. Harrington with Haywood C. Sullivan as general partner. After the 1993 season Sullivan sold his interest in the club to the Yawkey Trust and Harrington became CEO of the organization. The Sox fared well after the new division set-up was established in 1995, reaching post-season play three times in the last five years of the decade, including back-to-back appearances in 1998 and 1999, the first time the team had accomplished that feat since 1915 – 1916. In 1995, the Red Sox and the Cleveland Indians started a Division Series rivalry that would last throughout the decade. Behind the powerful hitting of Vaughn, who led the league in home runs and picked up the MVP Award, and the stable pitching of Clemens and knuckleballer Tim Wakefield, the Sox won the Eastern Division title and battled the Indians in the 1995 Division Series, only to be swept in three games. In 1996, Clemens struck out 20 batters in a game for the second time in his career, tying his own major league record. In 1997, highly-touted shortstop Nomar Garciaparra made his way to Fenway and impressed all who saw him, picking up the Rookie of the Year Award while leading the league in hits. He was joined in the Red Sox fold by another superstar, Pedro Martinez, for the 1998 season, which saw the Sox win the Wild Card for the first time. Strong pitching was the key to the team's success with Martinez 19 – 7 with a 2.89 ERA, while Tom Gordon achieved a major league record 43 consecutive saves on his way to 46 that season. The Sox went on to face Cleveland in the Division Series, where they were defeated once again. The pitching would figure into another great season for the Sox in 1999, a year in which Fenway hosted the final All-Star Game of the century, and the third in the history of the park. Martinez was the MVP of that game, retiring all six batters he faced, including five strikeouts, ultimately winning the Cy Young Award unanimously, and falling just short of MVP honors with a 23 – 4, 2.07 season. Once again, he led the Sox to a Wild Card berth and the Division Series against the Indians. This time, the Sox emerged victorious, coming back from losing the first two games to dramatically win the series and travel to the ALCS for the first time since 1986. In some form of poetic perfection, the Sox met the Yankees in the series, and the high point was game 3, where Sox ace Martinez met former Sox ace Clemens in Fenway Park. Riding home runs by Garciaparra, John Valentin and Brian Daubach, the Sox cruised to a 13 – 1 win over the New York rivals. Sadly, it was their only win in the series. Nevertheless, the 90's were a decade of success for the Sox.

2000 featured great performances by Pedro Martinez, who won his second straight unanimous Cy Young Award, and Nomar Garciaparra, who won his second consecutive American League batting championship with a .372 average. Reliever Derek Lowe tied the American League lead in saves with 42. The Sox finished in second place, just 2 ½ games behind the Yankees, with an 85 – 77 record, and set a new Fenway Park attendance record of 2,586,024. On December 13, 2000, the Red Sox signed premier power-hitting outfielder Manny Ramirez to bolster the team's offense into the new millennium. Despite major injuries to Garciaparra, Martinez, John Valentin and catcher Jason Varitek the Red Sox led the A.L. East for most of the first half of the 2001 season. Through Aug. 24 the Sox were still only 3 games behind the NYY before the club went into a tailspin that resulted in 21 losses in the next 26 games. They won the last five games of the season to finish with an 82-79 second-place record. Mgr. Jimy Williams was replaced by pitching coach Joe Kerrigan prior to the Aug. 16 game vs. Seattle. Newcomer Ramirez had a tremendous first half and despite a late-season hamstring injury hit .306 41 HR and 125 RBI. OF Trot Nixon won the team's MVP Award for his .280 average in 144 games with 27 HR, 100 runs and 88 RBI. RHP Hideo Nomo made his Sox debut April 4 in Baltimore and won 3-0 with the club's first no-hitter since 1965. Nomo also pitched a one-hitter May 25 vs. Toronto and led the A.L. with 220 strikeouts. Varitek hit 3 HR with 7 RBI in a 10-3 win in K.C. May 20, the first Sox catcher to hit 3 HR in one game. The team set new attendance records at home, 2,625,333 in 81 dates with 69 sellouts and 2,700,811 on the road in 80 dates. The 68-year Yawkey era would come to a close when a new ownership group led by John Henry, Tom Werner and Larry Lucchino took control of the team prior to the 2002 season.

HOW THEY BECAME THE RED SOX

As one of four new ballclubs to enter into the newly formed American League in 1901, the Red Sox were initially called the Boston Americans. Other nicknames for the club at that time were the Somersets, after original owner Charles W. Somers; Plymouth Rocks; Speed Boys; Puritans; but they were mainly called the Americans or Pilgrims. These various names were applied until 1907 when the current name "Red Sox" was adopted. The origin of this name is traced to the Boston Red Stockings, a powerful club of the National League in the 1870s and 80s. In 1907 the Red Stockings (who later became the Braves) abandoned the red hosiery they customarily wore. Manager Fred Tenney believed that the red dye in the socks could possibly cause infection in spike wounds. Red Sox Owner John I. Taylor stated, "From now on we'll wear red stockings, and I'm grabbing that name Red Sox!"

FENWAY FACTS AND OTHER NOTES

Fenway Park opened in 1912, with the first official game April 20 (after rainouts the previous two days). The Red Sox defeated the N.Y. Highlanders (now Yankees) 7-6 in 11 innings before 27,000 as Tris Speaker drove in the winning run. The story was pushed off the top of the front pages of Boston newspapers by news of the Titanic sinking. Prior to 1912 the Red Sox played their home games at the Huntington Ave. Grounds, now part of Northeastern University.

Other teams have played in Fenway Park besides the Red Sox. In 1914 the "Miracle Boston Braves" played their World Series games in Fenway en route to a 4-game sweep over the favored Philadelphia A's while Braves Field was under construction. The Boston Patriots (now New England Patriots) were fall occupants 1963-68 before eventually ending up in Foxboro. They were not the first pro football team in Fenway, however. The Boston Redskins played 4 years here before heading to Washington in 1937. The Boston Yanks played here 1944-48 prior to traveling to New York, Dallas, Baltimore (where they became the Colts) and now Indianapolis. Since 1990, the Red Sox have hosted a 4-college Beanpot Tournament each April. Boston College, Harvard Univ., Northeastern Univ. and Boston Univ. competed the first 6 years. When Boston Univ. dropped baseball, UMass replaced them in 1996. On April 27, 1997 UMass pitcher Scott Barnsby no-hit Northeastern in the semifinals, 1-0. It was the 1st no-hitter at Fenway since Dave Morehead's in 1965. The Red Sox have also hosted Cape Cod Lg. and college all-star games as well as state high school tournaments, most recently in 1998.

Collegiately, Boston College teams, mostly of the Frank Leahy era, and Boston Univ., with stellar quarterback Harry Agganis (later a promising Red Sox 1st baseman who died during the 1955 season), also played in Fenway Park.

WHY THE NAME FENWAY?

The new ballpark was constructed for the 1912 season and was named by then Red Sox owner John I. Taylor. He chose the name because "It's in the Fenway section of Boston), isn't it? Then call it Fenway Park." It was also Taylor who changed the club's name from Pilgrims to Red Sox in 1907.

SOME HIGHLIGHTS

First home run at Fenway and over the LF wall, April 26, 1912: First baseman Hugh Bradley hit the first home run at Fenway and the first over the LF wall vs. Philadelphia. It was the second and last home run of his career.

First Fenway fire, May 8, 1926: The bleachers along the left-field foul line burned down and weren't replaced, giving fielders the chance to snare foul flies behind the third base grandstand.

First Wore Numbers, 1931: The Red Sox have retired five uniform numbers: Ted Williams' No. 9 and Joe Cronin's No. 4 officially retired May 29, 1984; Bobby Doerr's No. 1 retired May 21, 1988; Carl Yastrzemski's No. 8 retired August 6, 1989; Carlton Fisk's No. 27 retired September 4, 2000.

First Sunday game at Fenway, July 3, 1932: a 13-2 loss to the Yankees. Sunday baseball was approved in Boston 3 years earlier, but not at Fenway due to its proximity to a church. The Red Sox played their Sunday games at Braves Field on Commonwealth Ave. until the law was changed. They actually played the 1st Boston Sunday game, a 7-3 loss to Phil., in Braves Field, April 28, 1929 (the Braves game of April 21 was rained out) before 22,000 fans.

Second Fenway fire, January 5, 1934: A 5-alarm, 4-hour blaze virtually destroyed the construction underway by new owner T.A. Yawkey to refurbish the park.

New Fenway opened, April 17, 1934: The Washington Senators, led by SS-manager Joe Cronin beat the Red Sox, 6-5, in 11 innings. Duffy's Cliff in LF was removed as well as the original wooden LF wall. The new wall was concrete and tin.

Biggest baseball crowds at Fenway: 47,627 for a Yankees doubleheader on September 22, 1935. 46,995 for a Detroit Tigers doubleheader on August 19, 1934. And, a week earlier, 46,766 to say goodbye to Babe Ruth at a Yankees doubleheader on August 12, 1934. Those crowds will never be equaled under Fenway's current dimensions. More stringent fire laws and league rules after World War II prohibited overcrowding that was permitted in the Thirties.

1936: 23-foot tall screen was installed above the LF wall.

July 30, 1936: Thomas A. Yawkey, A.L. President Will Harridge and the Red Sox team flew from St. Louis to Chicago, the first M.L. team to do so in one plane.

July 13, 1939: The first road night game was played by the Red Sox in Cleveland. The Sox won 6-5 in 10 innings; winning pitcher was Joe Heving.

1940: Bullpens were constructed in front of the bleachers replacing the old bullpen areas in the outfield foul territory beyond the dugouts. Box seats were added to the RF grandstand reducing the RF foul line to 302'.

1946: Skyview seats were added to Fenway Park.

June 9 1946: Ted Williams hit a monumental 502-foot home run to right field off Detroit RHP Fred Hutchinson. The ball landed on top of the straw hat of Joseph A. Boucher, 56, a construction engineer from Albany, NY who was sitting in Section 42, Row 37, Seat 21. "The sun was right in our eyes," he said. "All we could do was duck. I'm glad I didn't stand up. They say it bounced a dozen rows higher, but after it hit my head, I was no longer interested." At that time the bleachers were real bleachers and not individual seats.

July 9, 1946: The Red Sox hosted their first All-Star Game at Fenway Park, a 12-0 American League win.

1947: Arc lights were installed, the third last team among the then 16 major league clubs to do so. The Red Sox defeated the White Sox, 5-3, in Fenway's first night game on June 13. Dave Ferriss was the winning pitcher. Green paint replaced advertisements covering the LF wall. No more Calvert owl ("Be wise"), Gem Blades ("Avoid 5 o'clock shadow"), Lifebuoy ("The Red Sox use it") and Vimms ("Get that Vimms feeling").

May 12, 1948: Red Sox games were first televised at Fenway on WBZ-TV .

Oct. 4, 1948: The first playoff game in A.L. history took place at Fenway when Cleveland rookie LH Gene Bearden beat the Red Sox 8-3. SS-manager Lou Boudreau led the Indians with 2 HR and 2 singles. The defeat prevented the only cross-town World Series in Boston history. Cleveland beat the Boston Braves four games to two in the World Series.

September 21, 1956: Mickey Mantle of the Yankees, batting left-handed, hit the longest known home run to straight-away CF off RHP Frank Sullivan. The ball failed to clear the old brick wall by a foot. It carried approximately 480 feet when it struck the brick barrier located behind Section 36.

July 31, 1961: Fenway Park was the site of the second All-Star Game played in 1961. That game ended in a 1-1 tie having been called after nine innings and a 30-minute rain delay.

Oct. 21, 1975: The first World Series night game at Fenway Park was played. The memorable Game 6, delayed three days by rain, lasted 4:01 and ended with Carlton Fisk's dramatic HR off Pat Darcy leading off the last of the 12th. The Red Sox tied the game at 6-6 in the last of the 8th on Bernie Carbo's 3-run, pinch-hit HR, with 2 outs.

1976: Fenway's first messageboard in CF was part of a construction project that included a rebuilding of the LF wall as well as a new enclosed press box. Starting in 1976, National League scores were shown only on the new messageboard.

June 19, 1977: Carl Yastrzemski hit the longest known home run to the right of the bleachers, an 8th-inning blast off Yankee RHP Dick Tidrow. It reached approximately 460 feet before striking the facing of the RF roof about 20 feet to the right of where the retired #42 now appears. It is the only ball to reach the RF roof facade.

Oct. 2, 1978: The second playoff game in A.L. history, also in Fenway, was played. The Red Sox won their last 8 games of the regular season to tie the Yankees for 1st place in the East. The infamous Bucky Dent, two-out, three-run fly ball HR into the LF net put N.Y. ahead to stay in the 7th inng. The Red Sox left two men on in the 9th inning and lost 5-4.

1987-88: The color videoboard with black and white messageboard was installed in CF. Complete resodding of playing area. Construction of new function facility "Diamond At Fenway," and souvenir outlet "The Lansdowne Shop."

1988-89: 610 stadium club seats ("The 600 Club") were constructed above grandstand behind home plate (where former press box was located). New broadcast booths and press box were installed atop "The 600 Club."

1989-90: Massive renovations were made to the Red Sox ticket office.

1990-91: A new weight room and a multi-purpose room were constructed in the area of the Red Sox clubhouse.

1991-92: Portable enclosures for bullpen benches during cold weather were installed. Complete renovations to both dugouts were made.

1992: The metal awning roof was installed above left- and right-field roof box seats.

1993: Organized tours of Fenway Park began.

1993-94: Three-year restroom renovation was completed.

1995: Energy efficient lighting, heating/cooling and control systems were installed throughout facility via Boston Edison Company energy conservation program.

March 19, 1997: A 25-foot Coca-Cola contour bottle design atop the LF wall light tower was unveiled signifying the Red Sox' and Coca-Cola's partnership and their commitment to the fans, community and Jimmy Fund through the "Monster Refreshment" program. The program has ensured ticket price savings for fans and significant contributions to the Jimmy Fund for each Red Sox home run hit over the left-field wall or one that hits the Coke bottle. In 1997 the Red Sox hit two home runs off the Coke bottle: Wil Cordero Apr. 13 vs. Sea. and Tim Naehring May 11 vs. Tex.

May, 1997: The batting cage beneath the CF bleachers was completely renovated.

March, 1999: Red Sox' and visitors' clubhouse improvements were completed.

July 13, 1999: The Red Sox hosted their third Major League All-Star Game. The American League won the game 3-1. For the first time in the history of the All-Star Game a three-day event featuring, a celebrity hitting contest, a futures game and a home run derby, in addition to the All-Star Game, were held at a ballpark.

1901-02 Charles W. Somers of Ohio was one of the founders and financiers of the new American League who also owned the Cleveland team and made his fortune in the lumber and coal business.

1903-04 Henry J. Killilea was a Milwaukee lawyer and expert on baseball law who played an important role in the negotiations that ended the National League-American League war in early 1903.

1904-11 John I. Taylor was an avid sportsman and son of the owner, publisher and editor of The Boston Globe. He changed the team's nickname to "Red Sox" in 1907 and oversaw the land acquisition and construction of Fenway Park that opened in 1912.

1912-13 James R. McAleer was a National League outfielder during the 1890s who came out of retirement to help form the new American League's St. Louis franchise in 1901 as a player-manager. In December 1911 he bought 50% of the Red Sox from Taylor and was named club president.

1914-16 Joseph J. Lannin was a Canadian-born hotel and real estate tycoon in New York and Boston. He was a zealous baseball fan with a minority share in the National League Boston Braves before he purchased McAleer's 50% controlling interest in the Red Sox in early 1914.

1917-23 Harry H. Frazee was a long-time flamboyant baseball fan who was born in Peoria, Illinois and became successful in real estate management, stock brokerage and as a Broadway theatrical producer. He purchased the Red Sox in late 1916 from Lannin in a deal that included Fenway Park.

1923-33 J.A. Robert Quinn was a career baseball executive who was business manager of the St.Louis Browns prior to putting together a syndicate that purchased the Red Sox from Frazee August 1, 1923. He was appointed the team president and presiding owner.

1933 Thomas A. Yawkey was a New York entrepreneur who bought the team February 25, 1933, four days after his 30th birthday, and placed the team in a Trust.

July 9, 1976 Tom Yawkey died leaving his widow, Jean, as the primary beneficiary.

1978 The Yawkey Estate sold the team to a partnership including Jean R. Yawkey, Edward G. (Buddy) LeRoux, Jr. and Haywood C. Sullivan. The sale was approved by the American League May 23, 1978.

1981 Jean R. Yawkey moved to Boston, established the Jean R. Yawkey Trust, and transferred team ownership interests to it. She appointed John L. Harrington as co-Trustee.

1987 The Jean R. Yawkey Trust bought out Edward G. (Buddy) LeRoux, Jr., giving it two out of three General Partner votes.

1992 Jean R. Yawkey died in February and the Jean R. Yawkey Trust continued with John Harrington as Trustee with sole authority over Red Sox matters.

1993 The Jean R. Yawkey Trust bought out Haywood C. Sullivan's one General Partnership unit, giving it all three General Partnership units of the Red Sox, along with the three Red Sox limited partnership units previously acquired (53.49%).

2002 The Jean R. Yawkey Trust sold the club to a group led by John Henry, Tom Werner and Larry Lucchino December 20, 2001. The sale was approved by Major League Baseball January 16, 2002 and closed February 27, 2002.

THE RED SOX HALL OF FAME

In 1995 the Red Sox Hall of Fame was instituted to recognize the outstanding careers of former Red Sox players. A 15-member selection committee comprised of Red Sox broadcasters and executives, past and present media personnel, and representatives from The Sports Museum of New England and the BoSox Club is responsible for nominating candidates. The accomplishments of non-uniformed Red Sox personnel are also considered for special commendation and placement in the Hall. A memorable moment in Red Sox history is regarded as well for its special significance.

The criteria for selection into the Hall is as follows:

Player to be eligible for nomination must have played a minimum of three years with the Boston Red Sox and must also have been out of uniform as an active player a minimum of three years.

The non-uniformed person(s) selected and the memorable moment selected will be chosen only by a unanimous vote of the Boston Red Sox Hall of Fame Selection Committee.

Former Boston Red Sox personnel in the National Baseball Hall of Fame in Cooperstown, NY will automatically be enshrined into the Boston Red Sox Hall of Fame. In addition to the aforementioned they include: Jimmy Collins, Lefty Grove, Rick Ferrell, Eddie Collins and Tom Yawkey.

2000 INDUCTEES

The Red Sox hosted the third Boston Red Sox Hall of Fame Dinner and Enshrinement Ceremonies on May 18, 2000. Six former Red Sox greats were inducted into the Hall: Dwight Evans, Bob Stanley, Reggie Smith, Bill Monbouquette, Jackie Jensen, and Larry Gardner. ALL-STAR GAMES AT FENWAY PARK

On July 13, 1999 the Red Sox hosted the third All-Star Game ever to be played at Fenway Park and the last one in the 20th century. The American League defeated the National League 4-1 as Pedro Martinez, the eventual MVP of the Midsummer Classic, struck out five of the first six batters he faced for the win. The first game held at Fenway was on July 9, 1946 after a one-year hiatus due to war travel restrictions. The American League defeated the National League 12-0 in a game highlighted by the hitting heroics of Ted Williams. Williams hit two home runs and two singles and walked in his five at-bats scoring four runs and driving in five. The A.L. had 14 hits, the N.L. three. In addition to Williams, seven other Red Sox were A.L. all-stars: Johnny Pesky, Dom DiMaggio, Bobby Doerr, Rudy York, Hal Wagner, Dave Ferriss and Mickey Harris. Fenway Park was the site of the second All-Star Game played in 1961. That game featured solid pitching by both sides and ended in a 1-1 tie that was called after nine innings and a 30-minute rain delay. The Tigers' Rocky Colavito hit a 1st-inning home run for the A.L. who only had four hits in the game. The Nationals' only run scored on a RBI single by the Cardinals' Bill White off Red Sox rookie pitcher Don Schwall, who allowed all five N.L. hits in three IP. The other Red Sox representative was manager Mike Higgins who served as a coach.

1945 ALL-STAR REPLACEMENT GAME

Due to the on-going war in Europe and with Japan, no All-Star Game between the American and National Leagues was scheduled for 1945, the only year no game has been played since the series began in 1933.

However, on July 9 and 10, 1945 there were nine exhibition games played with the proceeds going to benefit various war relief efforts. On July 9 games were played in Chicago's Comiskey Park (Cubs vs. White Sox), New York's Polo Grounds (Yankees vs. Giants), in Great Lakes, IL (Philadelphia Athletics vs. Great Lakes Navy Team), in Cleveland (Cincinnati Reds vs. Indians) and in Indiantown Gap, PA (Pittsburgh Pirates vs. Indiantown Gap Army Team). The biggest crowds were 47,144 in Chicago and 41,267 in New York.

On July 10 games were played in Washington's Griffith Stadium (Brooklyn Dodgers vs. Washington Senators), St. Louis' Sportsmans Park (Cardinals vs. Browns), Boston's Fenway Park (Braves vs. Red Sox) and Philadelphia's Shibe Park (Phillies vs. Athletics). The largest attendance was in Washington (28,791) and St. Louis (24,113).

The only major league team that didn't play was Detroit. The Tigers were denied permission to travel to Pittsburgh by the U.S. Government. The Pirates therefore played a U.S. Army team. The Philadelphia A's played a game each day in two locations.

The game at Fenway Park drew 22,809 plus 846 servicemen and women and raised $70,000 for the United War Fund. New commissioner of baseball, Senator A.B. "Happy" Chandler, made his first official visit to Boston and was part of the first-pitch ceremonies with Massachusetts Governor Maurice Tobin.

The Red Sox won the game 8-1 behind rookie pitching star Dave Ferriss and three hits, including a home run, by rightfielder George "Catfish" Metkovich. The game took one hour and 42 minutes to play.

MOST HITS IN AN ALL-STAR GAME

TED WILLIAMS and CARL YASTRZEMSKI are tied with Joe Medwick for most hits in an All-Star Game with four. Williams had his four (two singles, two home runs) on July 9, 1946 in Fenway Park in an American League 12-0 win. Yastrzemski hit three singles and one double on July 14, 1970 in Cincinnati in a 12-inning, 5-4 National League win. He was named Outstanding Player of the game.

The Red Sox jumped out to a 1-0 lead on a 2nd-inning Nomar Garciaparra home run off Bartolo Colon. Mike Stanley's RBI single in the 4th inning gave Boston a 2-0 lead. Sox ace Pedro Martinez held the high-powered Indians lineup scoreless, but he left the game after 4 innings after pulling a muscle in his upper back. The Tribe tied the contest at 2-2 in the 6th inning when John Valentin's 2-out throwing error allowed Jim Thome to hit the next pitch from Red Sox reliever Derek Lowe for a 2-run HR. Cleveland loaded the bases in the 9th inning, and Travis Fryman hit a game-winning single off Rich Garces to give the Tribe a come-from-behind 3-2 win. Stanley (3-4) and Garciaparra (HR, 2B) had all 5 Boston hits.

For the 2nd straight game, Boston grabbed an early lead when Trot Nixon scored on a 3rd-inning single by Jose Offerman. The lead was short lived, however, as the Tribe scored 6 runs in the 3rd inning, highlighted by a Harold Baines 3-run homer. Boston gave up 5 more runs in the 4th inning, 4 of which came on Jim Thome's grand slam. Bret Saberhagen lasted only 2. 2 innings in the 11-1 loss. Mike Stanley continued his hot hitting by going 2-3. The 10-run defeat was the worst in Red Sox post-season history.

Trailing the series 2-0, and learning a few hours before the game that SS Nomar Garciaparra was unable to play because of a sore wrist, Boston looked to Ramon Martinez to keep the Sox in the series. Martinez responded by tossing 5. 2 innings, allowing just 2 runs on 5 hits at Fenway Park. John Valentin (2-5, 2B, HR, 3 RBI) broke a 2-2 tie in the 6th inning with a solo HR off Jaret Wright who lost in relief. Cleveland tied the score in the 7th inning, 3-3, but the Sox rallied in the bottom of the inning on a 2-run double by Valentin and a 3-run HR by Brian Daubach off Ricardo Rincon. Derek Lowe pitched 2.1 innings of solid relief (2H, 1 R) to get the 9-3 win.

High-scoring games on Sunday afternoons in October are usually reserved for football, but in this contest, the Red Sox turned the series around with a resounding 23-7 win over Cleveland. The Red Sox set 6 different post-season records, and the 2 teams combined to tie or set 3 other records. Boston scored 18 runs in the first 5 innings. John Valentin (4-5, 2B, 2 HR, 7 RBI) became the 6th Red Sox to hit 2 home runs in a post-season game, the 3rd Red Sox player to hit home runs in consecutive post-season games, set a Division Series record with 11 TB, and his 7 RBI tied an overall post-season record. The 23 runs and 24 hits by Boston set a M.L. post-season record. Mike Stanley (5-6) became just the 4th player in M.L. history to record 5 hits in a post-season game. Jason Varitek set an overall post-season record with 5 runs scored, and Jose Offerman was 3-5 with a HR and 5 RBI. Rich Garces picked up the win in relief, as Boston tied the series as 6 Boston pitchers held the Tribe to 8 hits.

Boston also became the fifth team to win a best-of-five post-season series after losing the first 2 games. Nomar Garciaparra's 2-run HR in the 1st inning gave the Red Sox a 2-0 lead, but an RBI double by Roberto Alomar and a 2-run HR by Jim Thome gave the Tribe the lead. Travis Fryman's 2-run HR gave Cleveland a 5-2 lead in the 2nd inning. The Red Sox rallied for 5 runs in the 3rd, highlighted by Troy O'Leary's first-pitch grand slam. The Tribe scored 3 runs in the 3rd inning on a RBI double by Manny Ramirez and another 2-run HR by Thome. In the 4th ining, John Valentin's sac. fly made it 8-8. Tim Wakefield retired the first four Indians, walked Murray on 4 pitches and had Thome crack a 2-run home run into the RF stands. With 2 outs in the 3rd, Baerga's single and 3 walks made it 3-0. Cleveland added 5 more in the 6th off Wakefield and Rheal Cormier before Maddux got the 3rd out. The Sox stranded 8 runners against Charles Nagy with only one run through five innings (Macfarlane's sac. fly in the 4th), and left 2 more on in the 7th. Their final run came in the 8th vs. Tavarez on 3 singles and McGee's force out. Weather conditions were wind-gusts of 15-20 MPH and 56-degree temperature at game time.

Wade Boggs gave the Sox a 1-0 lead with a HR into the screen in the 4th. Roger Clemens, making just his 2nd start since returning from an arm injury, pitched 6 shutout innings (4 H, 4 BB, 4 K) before tiring. Oakland tied the game in the 7th on Rickey Henderson's sac. fly off Larry Andersen. The A's went ahead in the 8th on a Lansford RBI single off Jeff Gray, and put the game away with a 7-run 9th as the Sox bullpen fell apart. Dave Stewart allowed just 4 hits in 8 innings (1 BB, 3 K), and Dennis Eckersley threw a scoreless 9th (1 H), as both continued their mastery of the Sox. R. Henderson (2 H, 3 RBI), Lansford (3 H, 2 RBI), and Terry Steinbach (3 H, 1 RBI) led the A's attack.

Rookie starter Dana Kiecker limited the A's to six hits and one run in 5.2 innings. Harold Baines (2 H, 3 RBI) and Carney Lansford (3 H) keyed the Oakland offense.

While most Oakland fans remember this as their clincher, to most Sox fans this is the game in which Terry Cooney ejected Roger Clemens. After a long rhubarb in the bottom of the 2nd, Cooney, the home plate umpire, "ran" Clemens for directing profanity toward him (Clemens' version of the situation differed greatly from Cooney's). Marty Barrett was also ejected during the argument that followed. The A's scored all their runs in the 2nd, highlighted by Mike Gallego who greeted reliever Tom Bolton with a 2-run 2B after the ejection making the score 3-0. The Sox plated their lone run in the 9th when Jody Reed singled in Ellis Burks. Dave Stewart was named series' MVP, as Oakland headed to the World Series for the 3rd straight year.

Roger Clemens and the Sox carried a 3-0 lead into the 9th, but the Angels tied it when Clemens, pitching on 3 days rest, tired, and Calvin Schiraldi could not hold the lead. Schiraldi hit Brian Downing with a 2-out, 1-2 pitch to force in the tying run. Bobby Grich singled in Jerry Narron in the 11th to give the Angels the win and a 3-1 series advantage.

The Sox scored first on Rich Gedman's 2-run home run in the 2nd. Bob Boone's solo homer in the 3rd cut the lead in half, and the Angels went ahead in the 6th when Bobby Grich hit a drive to deep centerfield where Dave Henderson, attempting a fine catch, knocked the ball over the fence for a 2-run home run and a 3-2 deficit. The Angels added 2 more runs in the 7th, and Mike Witt took the 5-2 lead into the 9th. Bill Buckner led off the inning with a single, and with one out, Don Baylor homered to pull the Sox within one. After Dwight Evans popped out, Gary Lucas relieved Witt and hit Gedman with his first pitch. Donnie Moore was then called on to face Henderson and came within one strike of clinching when "Hendu" drove a 2-2 pitch over the left-field fence to put the Sox back ahead. The Angels tied the game in the bottom of the inning, but Steve Crawford worked out of a bases-loaded, one-out situation to put the game into extra innings. Henderson came through again with a sacrifice fly in the 11th to give the Sox the 7-6 win and a new life in the series.

After a rainout on Sunday, John McNamara chose Bruce Hurst to face Ron Darling in the deciding game...Back-to-back HRs by Dwight Evans and Rich Gedman put the Sox ahead in a 3-run 2nd inning...The score remained 3-0 until the 6th when the Mets rallied to tie, and then went ahead in the 7th with 3 more including Ray Knight's leadoff HR...Evans' 2-run double in the 8th narrowed the lead to 6-5, but the Mets added 2 more in the bottom of the inning...Jesse Orosco retired the Sox in order in the 9th giving the Mets the game and the World Championship.

This was the first American League playoff game ever played. The Sox began the season with a dreadful 14-23 start, 11 1/2 games out and fought their way back into the A.L. race. The '48 season culminated with a dramatic 3-team pennant chase that saw the Sox eliminate the Yankees, and the Tigers defeat the 1st-place Indians on the last day of the regular season, forcing a playoff game between Boston and Cleveland for the rights to the A.L. Pennant. Cleveland defeated the Sox behind a 5-hit gem pitched by rookie lefthander Gene Bearden and a 4 for 4 day at the plate for manager/player Lou Boudreau (2 HR, 2 singles). Sox hurler Denny Galehouse lasted only 4 innings, giving up 5 hits and 4 runs. Cleveland scored in the 1st inning on Boudreau's 1st HR, and the Sox answered back with a run of their own on Johnny Pesky's double and Vern Stephens' single. The Indians exploded in the 4th, led by a 3-run HR by Ken Keltner. The Sox only managed 2 more runs off Bearden with a 6th-inning HR by Bobby Doerr that scored Ted Williams. The Indians went on to defeat the Boston Braves in a World Series that could have been an all-Boston showdown.

New Englanders remember this rare A.L. East playoff game as one of the Red Sox most exciting and heart-wrenching games. The Sox scored first with a 2nd-inning, solo HR down the right-field line by Yaz off Ron Guidry. In the 6th inning, the Sox added another run when Rick Burleson moved to 3rd on Jerry Remy's sacrifice and scored on Jim Rice's single. The Yanks moved ahead in the 7th with a dramatic, 2-out, 3-run HR by Bucky Dent over the Green Monster that scored Roy White and Chris Chambliss. In the 8th, Reggie Jackson homered into the center-field bleachers scoring what later proved to be the winning run. The Sox fought back in the bottom of the 8th to come within 1 run of tying the Yanks as they rallied for 2 runs on hits by Remy, Yaz, Carlton Fisk and Fred Lynn. Again, the 9th, the Sox battled back, and with 2 outs, Burleson on 3rd and Remy on 1st, Yaz popped out in foul ground against Rich Gossage to end the game. The Sox had come up short, and the Yankees went on to face Kansas City in the A.L.C.S. Many contend that this playoff game was the real World Series of 1978.

RED SOX IN THE WORLD SERIES

The Red Sox won the first World Series ever held (1903), which also was one of only four best-of-nine Series to be played (again in 1919-20-21). By beating the Pirates of the more established National League, they caused such an embarrassment that the N.L. refused to participate the following year, when the Red Sox repeated as A.L. Champions. The Red Sox have won 5 of the 9 Series in which they have played, holding an overall record of 33-26-1 in games played.

RETIRED NUMBERS

The Red Sox first began wearing numbers on their uniforms in 1931. Since then they have retired five uniform numbers: Joe Cronin's #4 and Ted Williams' #9 on May 29, 1984; Bobby Doerr"s #1 on May 21, 1988, Carl Yastrzemski's #8 on August 6, 1989 and Carlton Fisk's #27 on September 4, 2000.

The Red Sox policy on retiring uniform numbers is based on the following criteria:

- Election to the National Baseball Hall of Fame
- At least 10 years played with the Red Sox
- Finish his career with the club

TONY CONIGLIARO AWARD

In 1990 the Red Sox instituted a national award to honor the memory of their former star outfielder Tony Conigliaro. The award is presented to a major league player who has overcome adversity through the attributes of spirit, determination and courage that were trademarks of Tony C. A special panel composed of the media, representatives of the commissioner and the two league offices, Tony's brothers Billy and Richie, and a fan make the selection. Announcement of the award is made at the annual major league winter meetings in December and the formal presentation takes place at the Boston Baseball Writers Association dinner in January.

The first winner was K.C. OF Jim Eisenreich, who overcame a neurological movement disorder, Tourette Syndrome, to become a productive performer for the Royals after being out of pro baseball for 2 1/2 years. The 1991 winner was Dickie Thon who came back from a severe left eye injury when he was hit by a pitch April 8, 1984. He missed most of the next five years before he joined the Phillies as their regular SS in 1989. In 1992 the honor went to Jim Abbott whose story and accomplishments have been well documented nationally. He became an important role model to the physically and mentally challenged segment of our society. Bo Jackson was the 1993 winner. He was the first player in major league history to compete with an artificial hip after undergoing replacement surgery in April, 1992. The 1994 recipient was Mark Leiter who courageously handled personal tragedy while trying to maintain his baseball career with the Angels. Mark's nine-month-old son, Ryan, was afflicted with spinal muscular atrophy and passed away in April, 1994 while the Angels' plane was en route to Minnesota. Relief pitcher Scott Radinsky won the award in 1995. He battled back from Hodgkin's disease that was diagnosed in early 1994 and missed the entire season undergoing chemotherapy and radiation treatments. In 1996 Curtis Pride received the honor. Pride was born deaf and overcame the challenge to become a bona fide major league player and influential force in the community. The 1997 honoree was Eric Davis. Eric was diagnosed with colon cancer in June, and had surgery for the removal of a malignant mass and 1/3 of his colon. He received chemotherapy treatments which continued through his return to baseball on Sept. 15 and the post-season. Also during this time, Eric's brother, Jimmy, 37, suffered a fatal heart attack. Bret Saberhagen won the honor in 1998. Bret underwent reconstructive surgery for a right shoulder injury in May 1996 after months of intensive rehab proved futile. He missed the 1996 season and was signed in Nov. '96 by the Red Sox. After further rehab he made his 1st start in 2 years on Aug. 22, 1997. In 1998 Saberhagen went 15-8, 3.96 in 31 starts and 175 IP. Florida Marlins' 3B Mike Lowell won the award in 1999. He underwent testicular cancer surgery Feb. 19 but returned to baseball May 29. He became the Marlins regular 3B and hit 12 HR with 47 RBI in 97 games. LHP Kent Mercker and RHP Tony Saunders were co-winners in 2000. Mercker suffered a life-threatening cerebral hemorrhage while pitching for Anaheim in May. He returned to the Angels Aug. 12 and pitched the rest of the season. Saunders broke the bone (humerus) in his upper left arm May 26, 1999 pitching for Tampa Bay. Fifteen months later, on Aug. 24, 2000, he broke it again during a minor league rehab start. In 2001 RHP Jason Johnson and LHP Graeme Lloyd were co-winners. Johnson has Type 1 Diabetes that needs daily monitoring and the use of an insulin pump. He rebounded for the Orioles in 2001 finishing 10-12 in 32 starts and emerged as a clubhouse and community leader through his involvement with the Juvenile Diabetes Foundation's fundraising efforts. Lloyd made a comeback with the Expos finishing 9-5-1 in a career-high 84 games in 2001 after missing the entire 2000 season following surgery for a torn labrum and rotator cuff on his right shoulder. The injury occurred after he lost his wife, Cindy, to Crohn's disease on Opening Day 2000.

Conigliaro died February 24, 1990 after an 8-year struggle to come back from a massive heart attack that left him severely handicapped. Tony signed with the Red Sox in 1963 after graduation from St. Mary's H.S. of Lynn (MA). In his only minor league season he hit .363 in 83 games for Wellsville (NYP) with 24 HR and 74 RBI and was named the league's most valuable player and rookie of the year. He broke in with the Red Sox the next year, 1964, hit a home run in his first at-bat in Fenway Park en route to a .290 avg. and 24 HR, and was chosen to the All Rookie Team. Tony became the youngest player to lead a major league in HR when he hit 32 in 1965 and the youngest A.L. player to reach 100 HR. Mel Ott (N.Y. Giants) was youngest in M.L. history (22 yrs., 4 mos., 10 days); Tony was 2nd youngest to do so (22 yrs., 6 mos., 16 days).

His promising career was tragically shortened when he was hit in the face by a pitch at Fenway Park Aug. 18, 1967. He made a dramatic comeback in 1969, hit 56 HR with 198 RBI in two years, but his performance fell off and he was never the same player. Conigliaro spent 1971 with the Angels and was out of baseball until he tried another comeback with the Red Sox in 1975. After an excellent spring training he made the regular season roster and got the team's first hit of that season and later the club's first home run. He was outrighted to AAA Pawtucket in mid-June, retiring shortly thereafter.

ROBERTO CLEMENTE AWARD PRESENTED BY JOHN HANCOCK

Since 1970 Major League Baseball has annually presented an award (originally known as "The Commissioner's Award") which recognizes the player who best exemplifies the game of baseball, sportsmanship, community involvement and the individual's contribution to his team. The award, now sponsored by John Hancock Financial Services, recognizes those individuals who truly understand the value of helping others.

In 1972, following the tragic death of Roberto Clemente, the award was renamed to honor the man whose spirit and goodwill will always be remembered. The 12-time All-Star and Hall of Famer was killed in a plane crash New Year's Eve, 1972, delivering food and medical supplies to earthquake victims of Nicaragua.

Early in the season, each team will be asked to submit three candidates to a panel formed by John Hancock Financial Services. The panel will select a nominee from each club. A panel of baseball dignitaries, including Vera Clemente and Commissioner Alan H. (Bud) Selig, will then select a winner from the list of 30 nominees. The winner of the Roberto Clemente Award will receive a $25,000 donation from John Hancock Financial Services for the local charity of his choice at an on-field ceremony during the World Series. John Hancock will also make a cash contribution to the Roberto Clemente Foundation and to each nominee's local charity.

Past winners include Curt Schilling (2001); Al Leiter (2000); Tony Gwynn (1999); Sammy Sosa; Willie Mays; Lou Brock; Ozzie Smith; Cal Ripken, Jr.; Kirby Puckett and others.

The Red Sox nominee for 2001 was Tim Wakefield. It was his 2nd straight year to be nominated.

John Hancock is a proud sponsor of Major League Baseball and the title sponsor of The John Hancock All-Star FanFest, an interactive "Baseball Heaven on Earth" held in conjunction with MLB's All-Star Game.

TEN OUTSTANDING YOUNG LEADER AWARDS

In 1952 the Boston Junior Chamber of Commerce (Jaycees) began sponsoring the Ten Outstanding Young Leader Awards (TOYL) to recognize the outstanding professional and personal achievements and the community leadership of the recipients. The awards are given annually to individuals between the ages of 21 and 40. The following Red Sox players or personnel have been presented with the TOYL:

Name	Year
Jimmy Piersall, CF	1954
Carl Yastrzemski, LF	1968
Jim Rice, LF	1979
Dan Duquette, Executive V.P. and G.M.	1996
John Valentin, 3B	1998
Elaine Steward, V.P., Asst. G.M. and Legal Counsel	1999
Ron Burton, Jr., Community Relations Manager	2001

Note: In 1955, Red Sox broadcaster Curt Gowdy was a recipient of the TOYL Award.

THE HUTCH AWARD

The Hutch Award has been given annually to the Major League player who best exemplifies the character, fighting spirit and competitive desire of the late pitcher (Detroit 1939-53) and manager (Tigers, Cardinals, Reds), Fred Hutchinson. The award, which sits in the Baseball Hall of Fame in Cooperstown, NY, was instituted in 1965 and is sponsored by the Fred Hutchinson Cancer Research Center in Seattle, WA. Three Red Sox players have received the award: Carl Yastrzemski in 1967, Tony Conigliaro in 1970 and Andre Dawson in 1994. Mickey Mantle was the first recipient in 1965, and Curt Schilling was honored in 2001.

NOTE: In 1947, 33 baseball writers were asked to nominate five rookies for Rookie of the Year honors in order of preference, with votes distributed on a 5-4-3-2-1 basis. Jackie Robinson became the first nationally recognized winner of the BBWAA Rookie of the Year Award, or the "J. Louis Comiskey Memorial Award," as it was called then.

In 1948, 48 writers voted, this time naming only a single candidate on each ballot. Boston Braves' (N.L.) SS Alvin Dark won the award. The following year, the BBWAA began the process of choosing a top rookie in each league with the same three writers from each league city who decided on the MVP Awards voting. The number of voters was reduced to two in each league city in 1961.

The writers adopted the voting method used by Cy Young ballotmakers in 1980. Three rookies were named on each ballot in order of preference, and the votes were distributed on a 5-3-1 basis.

WALLY THE GREEN MONSTER

On April 13, 1997, Kids' Opening Day at Fenway Park, the Red Sox introduced their new mascot, Wally the Green Monster. According to legend, Wally, an avid Red Sox fan since Fenway Park's opening in 1912, had secretly lived inside the left-field wall since 1947. To commemorate the 50th anniversary of Fenway's famed "Green Monster," Wally decided to make his official appearance in 1997 to Red Sox fans. Since his debut, Wally has made numerous visitations in the community appearing at the Friendly Fenway Festival, Sox Talk clinics, the Red Sox caravan, schools and other locations, in addition to his role of greeting fans entering Fenway. He has also brought smiles to the children at the Jimmy Fund Clinic and other local hospitals, while teaching all he meets to love baseball, the Red Sox and Fenway Park. In 1999 Wally hosted mascots from other major league teams during the All-Star events.

NOTE: The W-L-T columns total one game less than the 15,516 game total reflected above as a result of a protested game and a major league ruling. On July 28, 1924 the Red Sox played a 10-inning game vs. St. Louis, a supposed10-5 win. St. Louis protested the game and A.L. President Ban Johnson ordered the game replayed on Sept. 13 as the 2nd game of a DH. The game of July 28 was discounted and Red Sox Manager Lee Fohl and the St. Louis manager were credited with a no decision. The Red Sox won the replay of the protested game 13-11.

The major league rule from 1920 on states: "If a protested game of at least five innings duration was ordered replayed in its entirety, then no win or loss is credited, but both managers are credited with a no-decision game."

Angels at Fenway Park June 8,1961, ended with a 1-1 tie vs. the White Sox at Fenway called due to rain after 7 innings July 31,1985...DAVE SAX' sac. fly in the 7th for the RED SOX tied the score...The game was called at 11:34 p.m...The RED SOX played 2,427 consecutive games without a tie entering the 2001 season.

NOTES

Did you know that...

Babe Ruth and Mickey Mantle are tied for the most home runs hit by an opponent at Fenway Park with 38...The Babe also holds the distinction of hitting the most home runs at Fenway in one season by an opponent when he hit 8 in 1927... Joe Carter had two three-HR games at Fenway Park 5/28/87 and 8/29/86, both for Cleveland, the only opponent to do so.

QUALLS, Kent A.

Director of Baseball Operations

Kent Qualls was promoted to his current position as director of baseball operations in December 2001, after serving as the club's director of player development for the past 3 1/2 seasons. In his new role, Kent will assist the general manager with the day-to-day operations of the baseball department. He will also continue to oversee all contract and administrative responsibilities for the minor league department, and the supervision of the Red Sox Florida operations. Qualls originally joined the Red Sox organization in 1995.

Under Qualls' direction, The Red Sox farm system has continued to excel. The 1999 Red Sox AA affiliate, The Trenton Thunder, was voted Baseball America's minor league team of the year, and the 1999 Augusta Greenjackets won the South Atlantic League Championship, the first Red Sox minor league championship since 1984. In 2000 Red Sox affiliates Pawtucket, Augusta and Lowell each set individual franchise records for the most wins in club history. The 2001 Augusta Greenjackets and Gulf Coast Red Sox qualified for post-season play, marking the fourth consecutive year that Red Sox minor league clubs have made the playoffs.

Kent had previously served as the Red Sox coordinator of baseball development and administration, working closely with the player development and scouting departments, as well as implementing and overseeing the Red Sox Latin American scouting and development program. During his tenure in this role, the Red Sox signed current prospects Tony Blanco, Franklin Francisco, Anastacio Martinez and Rene Minel.

Before joining the Red Sox, Qualls worked for the Montreal Expos from 1987 through 1994 where he last held the title of director of minor league operations. The Expos were twice voted Topps Major League Organization of the Year during this period.
